THE GRAND CONCERT ON WEDNESDAY AT THE OPERA HOUSE.—It has already been announced that a grand concert would be given on Wednesday next at the Opera House, for the benefit of a young lady of this city, a pianist of much talent and promise, and personally, in view of her social and private worth, esteemed eminently deserving of the proposed testimonial. Aside from the interest imparted by the benefit-ary in the circle of her acquaintances, the occasion holds out to the general public unusual promise as a musical entertainment. The programme before us contains an overture, by Weber for four hands on the piano, to be performed by Miles. L. and W. R.; selections from the Martyrs and La Favorite, sung by Mlle. A. F., with her charming native soprano voice; a selection from Trovatore and another from Le Postillon sung by Mlle. L., who possesses an elegant and pliant equal caste and cultivation; a romance by Mr. A. Davis, and two duos by Masters Durieux and Fontmercant, both favorably known in our music circles. The whole will conclude with a chorus, Le Chevalier to Charrue, by fifteen young ladies of fine vocal powers and cultivation, who have gratuitously volunteered as amateurs, to contribute their graceful assistance to the benefit.

Arrival of the Guiding Star.

The steamship Guiding Star, Capt. Knapp, from New York on the 19th November, 4 P.M., arrived at her landing in this city last evening about 7 o'clock.

The Guiding Star on the 22d and 24th experienced strong winds and passed a large number of vessels bound eastward, and arrived off Southwest Pass Sunday morning and was detained on the bar till 9½ A. M.

We have by this arrival files of New York papers to the 19th inst., but no news of importance has been received direct from that quarter, previously conveyed by telegraph via the West.

We are indebted to Messrs. Livingston, Wells & Co. and Wm. Field of the Guiding Star for newspaper favors and other polite attentions.
