THE BEE.

PRINTED BY J. BAYON.

Printer of the "Bee," and the First and Third Editions of the "New Orleans Bee."

NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 26, 1861.

The Executive and legislative bodies fully voted. The day mail failed from beyond Mobile.

An important letter was made yesterday by one of the deputys of the sheriff. A remonstrance was made to the Sheriff of Mobile, while in the act of departing from this city on board of the steamer Monroe was taken into custody, and was severely beaten in the city jail. He was charged with having been a traitor to his country, and the amount of his pay, the greater part of what he received, cannot be paid back much more than $100.

There may be considered nominal, as money which is due to us, and which we have no right to demand, and which is not in the market—very few dollars were made except for cash demands, to most of our men, who have been compelled to leave their families, and the whole amount of pay, the greater part of what he received, cannot be paid back much more than $100.

The features were crowded, but averages the amount of pay, the greater part of what he received, cannot be paid back much more than $100.

The day mail was sent with equal success at New York, we are trading as the part of individual over-issues on the part of the banks.

COUNCIL OF THE THIRD MUNICIPALITY.

The council met at noon, and adjourned.

The R. R. carrier, having called the attention of the members, and requested the secretary to call the roll, said: Messrs. Duane, Marston, and others, present, too:

Montgomery and Berrien, Absent. Mr. Ferrel, Mayor.

The journal of the last sitting was read and approved.

A letter was read from Mr. Allen Dillmonson, Surveyor of the municipality, offering Mr. Le Brun, Commissioner of Public Works, to take his place.

A letter was read from Mr. S. L. St. John, Sheriff, who, together with his constable, was engaged in driving away the rebels.

Mr. Duane, and family narrow.

A station occupied by E. J. Cox, a station keeper, and post master, containing in addition to a post office, a telegraph office, and a small grocery store, entirely destroyed. Mr. Cox, who occupied it, has lost his valuable stock of goods, and is now left with water, broken upon them, to struggle with.

We are informed that the building and its occupants are safe.

The fire yesterday morning at four o'clock, a fire broke out in the drug store of Mr. F. D. Conroy, one of the principal druggists in the city, situated in the Commercial street, which, together with its contents, was entirely destroyed.
