NOTICE—Thereby inform the public that I the day repaired to the city of New Orleans in order to pay a certain note drawn by me in favor of Joseph Davenport, dated the 15th March 1836, payable one year after date, for the sum of $1,078 71, and bearing interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum. The said note was taken from M. Joseph Devenport in the night of the 15th January, 1837, as appears by an advertisement in the Courier of the 19th January. I am the more induced to take this step, from having been informed that the said note is considered as an act of the said note, I have nothing more to do with the debt, and that I will not pay it a second time, without their having counter signed the signature of M. Devenport, for the note was endorsed at the time it was stolen.
