

THE DAILY BEE.
A NEWSPAPER.
G. F. WISKE & CO.,
111 CHARTRES ST.
NEW ORLEANS, LA.
MURKIN, B. DUFOUR,
111 CHARTRES ST.
TUESDAY MORNING, JAN. 12.
—No news Mail failed yesterday from Vicksburg.

THE DAILY BEE.

By Telegraph.

(TRANSMISSION THE NEW ORLEANS BEE.)

LATER FROM UTAH.

Sacramento, Jan. 12.—The Republicans have advanced to Utah to the last of December.

At Fort Bridger, except Cook's company,

the whole army is at York, where there was still a scatter upon the march.

Fort Bridger is being rebuilt, for the particulars of which see our column.

The troops are well and comfortable.

There are provisions enough to last till June, on close storage.

And so far as goes to Tom and Santa

Feil to procure supplies.

There is no animal belonging to the expedition had died.

MORMONS PREPARING TO LEAVE.

The Mormons are making preparations to leave the country.

Prosser party have already left.

BIGHORN BECOMES POLITE.

Young had invited all the officers of the command to his family, and spent the evening in a friendly interview.

PROSPECTS OF THEIR LEAVING.

It is said that Col. Johnson is so well equipped that he can leave at any time.

All armed bodies of men are commanded to remain at stand, and return to their posts.

DISPATCLES FOR WASHINGTON.

Identical Circular. The tenth Infantry,

1st Cavalry, etc., Washington, left this morning.

KANSAS ELECTION.

Gov. Cumming has issued a proclamation declaring the Territory in a state of rebellion.

Mr. Brown was very coolly received by Delegations from the South.

He did not expose his cause.

Besides, the attitude of the Black Republic.

It is an attempt of the party to impose Democracy.

It is not with Friends. The North represents Northern feelings.

Mr. Brown was very coolly received by Delegations from the South.

He did not expose his cause.

PROSPECTS OF THEIR LEAVING.

It is said that Col. Johnson is so well equipped that he can leave at any time.

All armed bodies of men are commanded

to remain at stand, and return to their

posts.

WALKERS TO THE PRESIDENT.

The National Intelligencer, of the published the names letter addressed to President Buchanan, Gen. W. W. Walker.

Washington, Jan. 12.—The speaker announced the President's response to the Central American.

Mr. Chapman, who part of the message referring to Foreign Affairs, served to the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.

Mr. Chapman responded to the question

whether the government of Nicaragua

had been informed of the adoption of the

constitution of Minnesota.