A Reminiscence—Something which has happened and will happen again.

It will be remembered that at the State elections who, while praying for the happiness of the departed, and their wanta are released. Thus the ceremental of faith is blended with the practical picty of works and we may believe that the mourner who, while praying for the happiness of the departed, and for consolution under the dispensations of Providence, labors to smooth the hard journey of poverty over the hy-ways of life, is approved by a merciful and just creatur.

All Seints Day will be solemnized this year with unusual fevor. Decolating has been the late spidlence, and manifold the mourners it has made. Hunderds have been strokenfdown, and the cemetery is the kened by their narrow resting places. How many hearts have been strokenfdown, and the cemetery is the kened by their narrow resting places.
