Among business is finished, and retreat a half gun shot these, is the story of a rough, through favorite nautical joke, which he played off upon a sailor by, in cutting down his hammock while asleep. The sturdy sea urchin resented this invasion of his repose; and, not knowing the quality of his invador, a regular set-to of fisty cuffs ensued in the dark. In this, it is said the Prince showed great bottom, and equal generosity on the following morning, when he made the boy a hand-some present of money. His conduct in this boyish affair is said to have gained him the hearts of all his shipmates. The Prince manifested, when on shore, a de cided fandness of manly pastimes. One of his favorite resorts was a small fresh water lake in sheet of many acres, and was thronged by the younger part of the population for the amusement of skating. As the Prince was unskilled in that exercise, he would sit in a chair fixed on velocity by a skating stendant, while a crowd of officers environed him, and the youthful multi-officers environed him, and the youthful multi-ture of the Prince, and which, even if not fully successful, might have placed his loval High-successful, might have placed his loval High-successfu mon in that climate, and probably still retains a place in his Majesty's memory.
