SEIDLITZ POWDERS.—The virtues of this celebrated preparation, when carefully and faithfully made, are well known; so well as to have created an unprecedented and increasing demand for it, ever since its discovery. The consequence of this immense demand has been (of late particularly) a hasty careless ness in its compositions which, if continued, must desness in in companions which, it comments, must con-troy its reputation as rapidly as it has been made.

Most of the Seidlits Powders, manufactured at the uorth, fail (when used here) to produce their salutary effects; and are returned, with complaints, to the seller.

The subscriber has therefore been compelled to nee the only means in his power to remedy the cett; and will, in future, exercisity prepare them himself.
