The Whigs of New York city held a meeting on the evening of the 7th inst., to respond to the nominations of John Young for Governor and Hamilton Fish for Lieutenant Governor. The meeting was one of the largest ever assembled in the city. Conone of the largest ever assembled in the city. Contrary to the expectations of many, its proceedings were most harmonious. The Whig nominations were ratified with great enthusiasm and determinawere ratined with great entusassm and determina-tion manifested to give the whole ticket a cordial and undivided support. The New York Correspondent of the Boston Atlas says that the Whiga cannot lose more than a thousand votes in the City of New York and will gain five times that number from disaffected Locolicos in the interior of the State. The chances of electing Whig State officers are considered very far; while the Whige expect to gain four or five Congressmen and two or three Senators, and will probably carry the House Representatives.

The election in Maryland has resulted in a perfect avalanche that has overwhelmed Locofocoism. The Senate will stand 16 Whigs 5 Locofocos; the House 55 Whigs, 27 Locofocos. The party have experience ed a Waterloo defeat and the old Maryland line ha oved staunch and faithful as ever.

The last returns for Representatives show the election of 53 Whiga and 19 Locoficus, and in the towns which failed to ect, the Whig votes had largely increased. Little loubt remains that the ultimate result will be the trimph of the Whig party, and the downfall of Locofo imprior the wring party, and the downlash of Locolo-sin in its boasted stronghold. In the Seventh Con-gressional District, where a Locofoco was said to have succeeded, the full returns show that no choice was ide, and thus the Congressional delegation stands, 1 Wing; 1 Locofoco; in five districts no choice.

A NOBLE ACT.—We understand, says the Courier, that Captain Smith, of the steamer Gladiator, was applied to yesterday morning by a gentleman, on behalf of several of our merchants, who offered him a fair charter for his boat, if he would go out-side, and render assistance to such vessels as may have suffered in the severe blow of the preceding night. He promptly refused the money, and replied that he would go as far as it was practicable, and torthwith proceeded to sea. He refurned during the day without having his services called into requisition.

The Wearing, with a wintry wheel. The air is pure and invited rating, the sun shipes with a cheerful radiance that almost cheats the pedestrian into the belief that its beams impart a genial warmth. The wind has, in a great measure, lulied, and though assumm be upon as and somewhat madenly too, its influence is just childing enough to remind us that the summer has fled, and that the sensor for higher fixes and comfertable clothing is mear at hand. For esseelves, we have no fault to find with this weather. It is bright, bracing and beautiful.

Sours Carolina.—The result of the election in The President observed that Mr. Communy should send in his resignation in writing before a new election good. the 20th instant.

SOTH CARCLINA.—The result of the election in the city of Charleston was not known at the last accounts. A very beavy vote had been polled and the canvass had been extremely exciting. From the tone of the Charleston Mercury we should imagine that the Charleston has been defeated for Caronia that Mr. Holmes has been defeated for Congress, by a Mr. Dowling.

The Charleston, and Savannah papers contain some particulars of the storm which was experienced at those places on the 19th and the 19th insts. It began on the 12th with a dry gale, which after some ompanied by a fall of rain, continuin thoughout the day, the wind increasing considerably Towards nightful and continued to regular northern gale set in, and continued to rage with great violence until early the next morning, the wind changing early in the night, from N. E. to S. E. It was, says the Charleston Courier, the most severe gale we have experienced for some dozen years past, but fortunately, mainly to be attributed to the quarter from which the said the attributed to the quarter from which the wind blew, and the short neap tides, there has been less damage sustained by the shipping in port than was anticipated.

The weather cleared up delightfully the next day cane, and was felt pretty severely in the city, by the prostration of trees and unroofing of houses; but the shipping in the harbor rode out the storm in gallant
