The New Orleans Bee.

OFFICE, 48 CHARTRES ST. NEW ORLEANS, TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 18, 1860 VOL. XVII—NEW SERIES. VOL. XXXII—WHOLE NO. 11545.

THE DAILY BEE.

TUESDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 18

BROWN AGAIN.

WHITHER ARE WE TENDING?

We had indulged the hope that after the execution of JOHN BROWN there would have been an end of talk and gossip respecting that gibbeted malefactor. It was but reasonable to anticipate that the North, seeing all efforts had proved fruitless to extricate BROWN from the stern grips of the law, would suffer him to be sent into the presence of his Maker without further outcry. But we were mistaken. Having found themselves unable to rescue the murderer and traitor from his merited doom, the Abolitionists are resolved to do all they possibly can with a view of canonizing him. In every practicable mode, and by every available stimulus to fanaticism, they are seeking to enshrine the memory of a convicted felon; to consider his death as martyrdom; to regard him as a hero and a demi-god, and to treat his foul crime as a glorious and ever memorable sacrifice to the spirit of liberty. It is evident that the Abolitionists are unwilling to let JOHN BROWN pass to oblivion, because they hope that by arousing indignation at his fate amongst their misguided crew, they may manufacture a fresh supply of political capital. Hence it is that the pulpit, the rostrum and the press are devoted to the infamous purpose of sounding the panegyric of a miscreant whose atrocities in Kansas had long ago deserved the scaffold; although but for his crazy attempt at Harper's Ferry, he might have escaped retribution.

As samples of the style in which BROWN's execution is treated at the North, we subjoin the following from an account given by the Herald.

The Tribune says:

"There are era in which death is not merely horrid, but beneficent and fruitful. Who shall say that this was not JOHN BROWN's fit time to die? * * * To all who have suffered for human good—who have been persecuted for an idea—who have been hated because of their efforts to make the daily path of the despised and unfortunate less rugged—his memory will be fragrant through generations. It will be easier to die in a good cause, even on the gallows, since JOHN BROWN has made real that mode of exit from the troubles and temptations of this mortal existence. Then as to the "irrepressible conflict," who does not see that this event will hasten it on? * * * So let us be reverently grateful for the privilege of living in a world rendered noble by the daring deeds and suffering martyrs—among whom let none doubt that his story will accord an honored niche to old John BROWN."

The Evening Post has a long article in the same strain, from which we extract the following sentence:

"A large part of the civilized public will, as a large part of the world does already, lay on this tomb the honors of martyrdom, and while those honors remain there, his memory will be more terrible to evil-doers than his living presence could ever be. Therefore because it will bring recruits to the cause who would never have served under his banner while he was wielding carnal weapons."

The Albany Journal has a similar article on the subject, headed "The beginning of the end," and calmly ed to invite others to follow in the same bloody course. It says the effect of his death will be that "hatred of slavery will be the predominant emotion in the breasts of millions." In Albany, on Friday, one hundred guns were fired to do honor to the martyrdom of BROWN, and the guns used were the cannon of the State arsenal, thus giving a quasi official endorsement to the crime for which he suffered. The Republicans are in possession of the keys of the capital of the State, and this is the manner in which they use it. At Syracuse and Rochester sympathy meetings were held and addressed by the clergy. In this city there have been prayer-meetings and "exercises" on the occasion, both in the negro and white churches. At Chester's auction the violent tone of the discussion, that one gentleman "thought a demonstration could have been made in favor of JOHN BROWN, and he might have been strung still. One thousand men, well armed, would subdue Virginia with very little trouble." In this morning's paper sermons on the subject will be found in the Unitarian, Hotel, Philadelphia, an overflowing meeting of sympathizers was held on Friday. At Cleveland, Ohio, a similar demonstration came off. And what is the sentiment in New England? In Providence, Rhode Island, a large meeting was held. At Worcester, Massachusetts, the church bells were tolled, and an attempt to do the same thing was made at Manchester, New Hampshire, which was but a step to by the Mayor. In the Senate of Massachusetts a motion to adjourn in consequence of the execution of JOHN BROWN was lost by only a majority of eleven to eight. The Boston Bee and Atlas affirms that his death has immortalized the anti-slavery cause, and that the North has stood firm and has not been scared in to repudiation of his acts. It concludes its article as follows:

"If the scared wolves and the horses of the gallows by the hand of law, we may be assured that there will be those who will not regret such his memory, and that the State which took his life will in time erect to him a monument."

Put a tree in the ground and ready, and the sun rising fingers bare,
While a howling mob of yesterday in silent awe returns
To gather up the scales of taken into History's grim urns.

And yet these people fancy that the South has no cause of complaint, and that let them say and do what they may, she will not dare to dissolve the Union. They imagine that they are privileged to incite insane fanatics, or unprincipled scoundrels to invade our soil, and endeavor to create a servile insurrection, and that when the wretches who have thus plotted rapine and murder are captured in the very act, we have no earthly right to punish them, but should pardon and release them. They, the Abolitionists, really think they enjoy the unquestionable prerogative of making war upon the South, and that we should fold our arms and meekly bow our heads before the uplifted weapon. They may take our word for it, that they know nothing whatever of the temper of the South. We can tell them that the staunchest Union men in the land are now entirely convinced that the Abolition question has reached a crisis, and has to be definitively settled upon equitable constitutional principles, or the South will withdraw from a connection with the North which is productive of nothing but disgrace and dishonor. Such is the prevalent feeling throughout the South. It is growing too every day. Citizens who but a few months ago derided the idea of a dissolution of the Union, are now openly avowing that this complexion must slavery question come, unless the assailants of the South suspend their aggressive policy. Let the Abolitionists examine the messages from the various Southern Governors, and they will not fail to discern overwhelming evidence of this truth. We call upon them to mark them who still preserve a tongue of reason and patriotism to pause in season and retrace their steps. Those familiar with the course of this paper know full well that we have never faltered in our allegiance to the Union, or vacillated in our opinion of its perpetuity; but we are free to declare, for the first time in our lives, that we now regard the Union as in real jeopardy, and that unless there be a manifest reaction in favor of justice and good faith towards the South, its days will shortly be numbered.

TEXAS.—We have Galveston papers of the 8th, but they are wholly destitute of interest. General Lafitte, as he was generally called, was drowned on the 17th, while crossing Corpus Christi bay in an open boat.

HISTORY OF THE WHIG PARTY.—We are indebted to the publishers, CROSBY, NICHOLS & CO., through BLOOMFIELD & STONE, No. 60 Camp street, for the following work: "A History of the Whig Party, or some of its Main Features; with a hurried glance at the formation of parties in the United States, and the outlines of the history of the principal parties of the country to the present time, &c.;" by R. MCKINLEY CROSBY. This is a book of considerable interest, and written in a discriminating and impartial spirit. We notice that it does ample justice to that noble and glorious party which was so long the bulwark of Conservatism, and of which little more than the memory is now left. We recommend the book to the student of our political history.

CLOCKS AND WATCHES.—It will be seen by referring to our advertising columns that S. FORSTNER, No. 78 Royal street, offers for sale a superb assortment of time keepers, such as clocks of every description, watches, &c. He is now opening an assortment of choice fancy goods.

SALE OF CHOICE CIGARS.—Messrs. L. A. LEVY, JR., & Co. will sell, at 10 o'clock to-day, at the store of GUMA & MARCUS, No. 23 Chopapitoulas street, one million of Havana cigars, direct importation, embracing a number of the choicest brands, and made of tobacco of the new crop. The sale is positive, and the terms liberal. See advertisement.

EXTENSIVE CREDIT SALE OF DRY GOODS.—The particular attention of buyers is called to the next credit sale of dry goods to take place THIS DAY, at 11 o'clock, at the auction room of E. Roger & Co., No. 26 Old Levee street. Terms—Over $200, six days' credit.

RAISINS.—The attention of purchasers is called to the sale to take place THIS DAY, at eleven o'clock, by E. D. BYRNE, at his auction warehouse, No. 45 Magazine street, of the cargo of the Spanish brig Venerador, consisting of Raisins, Figs and Almonds.

By Telegraph.

[TRANSMITTED TO THE NEW ORLEANS BEE.]

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE OVERLAND MAIL.

ST. LOUIS, December 13.—The California overland mail has arrived here, bringing San Francisco dates to the 18th ult.

The steamer Cortez, from New York, with passengers, had not arrived at San Francisco up to the 18th ult.

The Cortez left New York on the 20th of October, and has had full time to reach her destination. Very serious apprehensions are entertained for her safety.

The steamer Northerner has been several days overdue from Puget's Sound.

The case of Boggs vs. the Merced Mining Company, which case has been in court for some length of time, has been decided in favor of Boggs, which substantially gives the gold as well as the land to J. C. Fremont.

The business at San Francisco is very steady and firm, although money is scarce.

The overland mail from St. Louis to California, with St. Louis dates to the 21st ult., was passed by the return mail at Malloy's station.

General Scott has arrived at San Francisco from Vancouver's Island.

He was enthusiastically received by the citizens of that city.

The latest news from the Carson Valley announces the election of John J. Musset as delegate to the State Legislature from that district.

A very large and rich silver lode has been discovered in Carson Valley, which is supposed to be a continuation of the Comstock vein.

The latest news from Arizona states that Captain Ernall has been successful in his interview with Pesquiera.

Stone's surveying party had been allowed to proceed in their labors, which had been suspended by Pesquiera's orders.

The new Juarez Government has been recognized by Pesquiera.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—The Senate met to-day pursuant to adjournment, but the proceedings were of an unimportant character.

In the House, nothing of importance occurred. No vote was taken on the election of Speaker, and it is believed another week will be occupied in preliminary harangues and personal explanations.

SECOND DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—In the Senate to day Mr. Iverson made a personal explanation, in the course of which he said that to the remarks he made in the debate on the unconstitutionality of the Democratic party North, he had not intended to charge Senators or leading men of the party with complicity in the John Brown raid. He had merely wished to say that the position of Senator Douglas with regard to the territorial rights of the Southern people was not sound, and a large portion of the Democratic party agree with Douglas on that question.

Mr. Bigler defended the Northern Democracy from the charge of leaning towards Abolitionism.

Mr. Johnson, of Tennessee, made a speech against the Republicans and in defense of the Union. He denounced John Brown and his agitators as the vilest of traitors. Mr. Johnson criticised Senator Seward's Rochester speech very severely, after which the Senate adjourned.

THE VICE-PRESIDENT ELECTED SENATOR.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—A dispatch from Frankfort, Ky., announces that ex-Vice-President Breckinridge was to-day elected by the Legislature of Kentucky as United States Senator from that State.

Breckinridge's majority on joint ballot was 29.

BOSTON MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

BOSTON, December 12.—Mayor Lincoln was re elected Mayor of the city to-day by about 1200 plurality. A majority of the Common Council of the Lincoln stripe are also elected.

HARRODSBURG FEMALE COLLEGE BURNED.

LOUISVILLE, December 12.—A large fire occurred at Harrodsburg, in this State, on last Saturday night, which consumed the large building occupied by the pupils and teachers of the Harrodsburg Female College. No lives lost by the conflagration.

COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK, December 12.—The Cotton market closed firm, with moderate sales, and prices generally unchanged.

CHARLESTON, S. C., December 12.—The Cotton market was firm to-day, with a fair demand at previous prices.

SAVANNAH, December 12.—Our Cotton market closed quiet and firm, previous quotations being well maintained.

CINCINNATI MARKETS.

CINCINNATI, December 12.—Flour closed active. Sales to-day amount to 900 barrels, at $6 35 to $6 40.

Whisky closed steady. Sales to-day amount to 100 barrels at 21c.

Corn closed active at an advance of 2c. on the bushel, and is now quoted at 44 to 45c.

Western Mess Pork is quoted at $16.

Sugar closed firm. Sales to-day amount to 200 hogsheads, at 8¾ to 8¾c.

Oats are quoted at 50 to 52c.

STEAMBOATS PASSED VICKSBURG.

VICKSBURG, December 13.—The steamer St. Cloud passed down at 7 o'clock; the R. H. Judson at 10 o'clock; the Thirty-Fifth Parallel at 11 o'clock, yesterday morning; the A. O. Taylor, also the Gold and Republic, passed down at 10 o'clock last night; the Crescent City passed down at 7 o'clock; the Wm. M. Morrison at 9 o'clock, this morning.

VICKSBURG, December 12.—The steamer Chancellor passed down at 10 o'clock; also the Belfast at 11 this morning; the J. C. Swon passed down at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

[Communicated.]

To the Editors of the Bee:

Gentlemen, will you have the kindness to give place in your columns to a few observations which interest a great portion of your subscribers as well as the community in general?

For the last two months the commercial portion of the city has swarmed with a crowd of merchants, jobbers and importers from North ern cities; some with samples, but the greater portion with merchandise, which they sell at any price, and at great sacrifices, because, they say, they cannot afford to send back their goods. The merchants of the North abuse scandalously New Orleans purchasers who buy their goods: reckless of the wrong they do to their clients, they undersell their merchandise in the four corners of our city selling by the piece or by the yard, at $5 and 30 per cent below the price they have already charged their regular and legitimate customers.

This illegal and unjust commerce is done without the expense of rent, tax or license, to the great detriment of those who buy in a legitimate manner as well as to the finances of the city. Is it not time that the officers who are appointed to guard the interest of commerce and the community should be publicly notified of this infraction to the laws of equity and of the corporation? So that our Aldermen or members of the Council pass ordinances which would protect merchan s who pay heavy rents and taxes, and guard them against the rapacity of those vultures of the North, who make and take the money in its harvest time and carry away only bare grain, without having even the delicacy to pass any of it through our mills.

ECHO OF THE CITY IMPORTERS.

The steamship De Soto, Captain Bullock, sails this morning at 8 o'clock, for New York via Havana, with the following passengers:

FOR NEW YORK.—Caleb Newmade, C F Williams, P W Hall, E Bascom, V Contreman, Capt L Cabaret and lady, Miguel Zaldenanno, M W Z Mabry, Col. W Harding.

FOR HAVANA.—Gen G Williams, R Bascom, Mr Siter and lady, Mr L White, Mrs J Rost, Mr Neal, J H Strange, Judy and child, Gen J Preston, G Bonds, E, W G Jessup, S Brunner, Oscar De Lisle.

The New York correspondent of the Charleston Mercury says:

Poor Rignot, "Gentleman George," as he used to be called, the idol of the pit at Park Theatre, and the successful teacher of many who have achieved histrionic fame, is now in very straightened circumstances. He is lying ill and utterly helpless in the upper part of the city, with no other means of support for himself and his family of four small children than the paltry five or six dollars a week he earns from the Theatre Comique. Should his case get into the daily newspapers, as I hope it will, prompt relief will undoubtedly be furnished by hundreds of those to whom the name of George, — for so he is familiarly called with his exquisite acting. He was the "George Jordan" of his day, in points of elegance and felicity of stage deportment.

WHO IS WISE?—I asked the statesman, "Who is wise?" He replied, "The man who best understands the fundamental principles of civil and political government."

The man said, "I stood responsible, "He is wise who can vanquish an army more powerful than his own."

The miner thought that every one knew that "He is wise who gets much and spends nothing."

The man of letters informed me that he was wise who felt himself perfectly at home in the widest circle of the arts and sciences.

The physician said, "He is wise who is successful in removing the diseases of the human system."

I heard these and various other replies, and, being dissatisfied with all, I sought the Bible, and with augmented earnestness I propounded my inquiry, "Who is wise?" and I met this satisfactory answer, "He shall seem saith unto it wise!"

RECENTLY CHEAPER THAN EVER.—A very convenient table fact in relation to the value of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the following: "A disgusting cough, that really frightful and singularly expected warn, which takes possession of the throat and lungs, and whose intention, contrary a few days since in the neighborhood of Boston, a lady who had suffered exceedingly from the ravages of this parasite, called periodically by the professional gentlemen, given by Ramsdell, Esq., of this city, who had been induced by his numerous efforts to make the remedy known, has now ceased to be terrifying that she is now perfectly cured. And it is not from any fear of the supplies of this remedy failing her husband stated to a physician on Wednesday that at least one hundred feet of expectation. One hundred feet have a terrible operations been expelled, after taking a dose. From an inspection of portions presented in the bottle, it appears probable that some of these feet of uncommon length have existed in the tube of the throat at the same time. The thinking reader will hardly present a parallel in this or any other country.—Boston Traveler.

EUROPE.

News by the Edinburg and Ocean Queen.

The New York papers of the 8th inst., for which we are indebted to Adams's Express, publish the following European news brought by the Edinburg and Ocean Queen:

The announcement that invitations had been issued for the European Congress was premature. Nothing authentic was yet known in the matter.

Le Nord says it is probable the discussions in the Congress will extend over five or six months. The treaty of peace will first be examined, and then the Italian question will be discussed.

A memorandum of the Tuscan Government tells the European powers that if the Congress orders the restoration of the Grand Duchies they will oppose it to the last. If attacked they will, though sure of defeat, do their best to repel force by force.

Prince Metternich has submitted to Count Walewski the letter from the Austrian Government addressed to the foreign powers, inviting them to take part in the Congress. These invitations will be delivered by the French Couriers accepting similar invitations from the French Government.

Earl Cowley has left Paris for London, having been summoned, it is said, to receive instructions from the British Cabinet respecting the Congress.

The Paris Monitour of the 23d of November contains the following important announcement:

The French Government, believing that the delegation of the regency of Central Italy to M. Buoncompagnie would prejudice the question which will be submitted to the approaching Congress, had looked on the adoption of the above measure with regret. This impression is now modified by the explanations given by the Government of Sardinia, which declare that the maintenance of public order was the sole object and only aim of the above delegation to M. Buoncompagni, and that the concentration in his hands of the Government of Central Italy had in no manner the character of a virtual regency.

With reference to this question, the article concludes by reminding the public that the Monitour is the only political organ of the Government.

The Monitour contains a decree to insure the execution of that clause of the treaty of Zurich wherein the giving up of the Austrian vessels captured during the late war, but not yet adjudged as prizes, is stipulated.

A regiment in the Bolognese brigade had taken the oath of Victor Emmanuel, and is to wear the uniform of the Piedmontese army.

M. Desambrois had been appointed the Sardinian Ambassador to Pisa.

The London Herald's Paris correspondent says it is denied in well informed quarters that the French papers are to be restrained in their expressions against England.

The Gazette, the Bordeaux journal, had been seized for publishing the Count Salosky article on the King of Sardinia by the Ami de la Religion.

The Courrier du Dimanche gives an analysis of the dispatches which were addressed to the Cabinet of the Tuileries by the Courts of Vienna and Rome a short time after the meeting of the assembly of Central Italy. Count de Rechberg called to mind the engagements of Villafranca, requested Napoleon to disapprove the regency, and concluded by declaring that if the French Government did not loudly blame the course of the assemblies, Francis Joseph could not, to his great regret, sign the final treaty of peace. Cardinal Antonelli wrote to the same effect, and said that if the regency were not formally condemned the Pope could not follow out the reforms which had been concerted with the Emperor Napoleon in a view to the future reorganization of the Romagna and the States of the Holy See in general.

The Democratie had received a warning.

The London Advertiser states that it is the intention of the Government to limit the intended reform bill to the mere extension of the franchise. The question of disfranchisement and the mode of taking the votes are said to be deferred or made separate measures.

The Spanish movement against Morocco is progressing slowly.

It was reported that negotiations were progressing for the forwarding of New York direct mails via Queenstown.

Dr. Barry, Catholic Bishop of Savannah, had died in Paris.

The father of the child Mortara had arrived in Paris, determined to demand from the Congress the restoration of his child.

Later news had been received from India, but it is unimportant. Business at Calcutta was dull.

The ship Duke of Wellington, from Liverpool, bound to Bombay, was burnt at sea November 11th, off Cape Finisterre. All hands were compelled to take to the boats, and were picked up after forty-eight hours' exposure.

Intelligence from Potsdam still reports a favorable progress in the condition of the King of Prussia. His Majesty takes his daily walks, notwithstanding the bad weather is sometimes unfavorable, and gains a great increase of strength, while visible improvement is observable in other respects.

The Piedmontese Government, following the example of that of France, had contracted by public subscription a loan of four millions of reales, and received subscriptions amounting to nineteen millions of reals, or nearly five times the capital. The importance of this operation is very striking, when it is considered that this loan corresponded to a sum of eighty millions, and more than four hundred millions were offered to the Government.

The King of Sardinia has issued a decree for immediately applying a sum of 4,000,000 to fortify Cremona, Pavia, Lonato and another place.

The Opinion Nationale of France contains a violent protest against the participation of France in the Chinese war. "Let us not," it says, "shed the blood of our children to assure a gigantic victory to our industrial rival, with whom we can hardly compete at home."

It is stated that the staff of the French expedition to China is under orders to leave on January 1st.

It is stated that during the whole Chinese war a fortnightly mail is to be organized between Canton and Toulouse, via Suez.

The Danish Ministry had resigned.

In Germany the conference of the federal States was about to commence at Wurtburg. Several questions of federal policy were to be considered.

The London Times of the 24th ult., speaking of the Island of Perim, in order to set at rest the fears of the supplies of this island, shows the nature of the English occupation, and says:

"We have once voluntarily abandoned Perim, but in '57 took possession again, in order to erect a lighthouse, and it is occupied by from fifty to sixty persons, including only a single European—a young officer of the Bombay artillery. The rest are natives of India, comprising twenty-five sappers and thirty gunners. The sappers are occupied in building the water tank and storerooms, and the charge of the place devolves upon the gunners, who, however, have no guns, but with Arabs and Africans a sound imposition is necessary against a sudden attack."

England was making active preparations for a home defense. A dispatch says:

"Steps have been taken for the formation of a rifle brigade, to consist of Irishmen resident in London, under the title of the 'Irish Volunteer Rifles.' It is stated that an exceedingly efficient body is likely to be formed in a very short time. The applications for enrollment in the London Rifle Brigade have amounted to 700. The enrolled members of the Inns of Court corps volunteers yesterday met two hundred strong, to elect a managing committee. A meeting in the city of the Artillery Volunteers was held yesterday for the purpose of forming a corps of riflemen.

The London Times contains a long letter urging the efficiency of corps of volunteer cavalry.

Nena Sahib is reported dead.

THE SUPREME COURT AND THE PRESIDENCY.—In conformity to custom, but not less in compliance with their own sentiments of respect for the high office of President, the Judges of the venerable Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and the Associate Justices who are present in this city, on the opening of the Court—namely, Judges McLean, Grier, Clifford, and Campbell—paid their respects yesterday to President Buchanan.

The interview was a most agreeable one on both sides; and it may easily be imagined that, at this crisis, could the public have had the hearts of that learned and dignified company, they would have rejoiced that, amidst the rage of factions, the Executive and the Judiciary of the nation are in the hands of men in which only of the whole country, the Union, and the Constitution.

THE VICE-PRESIDENCY.—Mr. Breckinridge took the earliest opportunity, after the adjournment of the Senate yesterday, to call on the President, by whom he was received with that frank and cordial manner which, contrasting the boisterous of official etiquette, characterizes the receptions of Mr. Buchanan.

TRIBUTE TO THE PRESIDENT.—Yesterday a very large number of our most distinguished manufacturers and country-women availed themselves of the opportunity to pay their compliments to the President on the occasion of the opening of the session of Congress.

These ladies and gentlemen, from every part of our wide-spread Confederacy, bring with them assurances of devotion to the Union on the part of those portions of the people whom, by their intelligence, their talents, their grace, and their social position, they are entitled to represent.—Washington Constitution.

THE GREAT STRUGGLE.—The following beautiful passage is taken from Timothy Titcomb's or Dr. Holland's "Preaching upon Popular Proverbs," which the Springfield (Mass.) Republican is now giving to the world:

The body is to die; so much is certain. What lies beyond? No one who passes the shadowy boundary ever comes back to tell the tale. Imagination visits the realms of shadow, and out from some window of the soul over which vouchsafe wanders, but wings its way unseen by mortal eye with an olive leaf in its beak or a sword in its talons, alighting like Noah's dove on the receiving ark, or like the raven on the troubled waters. The great sun comes and goes in heaven, yet breathes no secret of the other world unseen; the ancient moon looks down her nightly journeys upon the earth, and hears no message and receives no response. The stars keep their midnight watch, but bring no tidings. The restless tides ebb and flow, but bring no word from the shore to which they are hastening. The mighty forests bend and toss in the storm, but tell no secret of the spirit land. The rivers run their courses, but whisper not a word of the mysterious country from which they spring. The mountains lift their heads into the clouds, but they are dumb. The flowers bloom and fade, but they bring no message. The birds sing, but they do not speak. The lightnings flash, but reveal not. The thunders roll, but they do not interpret. The rainbow spans the heavens, but it is only a span. Nature is full of mystery, and has no explanation for the soul. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of death. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of life. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of the soul. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of God. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of heaven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of hell. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eternity. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of time. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of everything. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of nothing. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of all. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of none. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ten. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eleven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twelve. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fourteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventeen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of nineteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of twenty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of thirty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of forty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of fifty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of sixty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of seventy-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of eighty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of ninety-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ten. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eleven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twelve. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fourteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventeen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and nineteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and twenty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and thirty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and forty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and fifty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and sixty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and seventy-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and eighty-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of one hundred and ninety-nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and nine. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and ten. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and eleven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twelve. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and thirteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and fourteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and fifteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and sixteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and seventeen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and eighteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and nineteen. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-one. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-two. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-three. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-four. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-five. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-six. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-seven. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-eight. Revelation alone has the key to the mystery of two hundred and twenty-nine. Revelation alone