GENTLAREN—Induced i hand you a copy of the official report of Captain Francis M.

Durrance, of the State's Housted Volunteers, detailing briefly the results of the engagements with the indians and our forces on the frontier, on the 14th and 16th Instants, in which we lost several good citizens killed, and several others are suffering with wounds.
They fought desperately on boils alces—at a distance but little more than the length of their guns, and in hand to hand combinat. The achievement of this little band of brave men is anyrecedented in modern indian warfars.
They fought more than two tone. One for dian was dispatched with a koise, by one of our mes on the 14th, in hand whand strife.
