

THE DAILY BEE.
PUBLISHED BY
G. W. WILSON & CO.
111 Carondelet Street, New Orleans, La., every day at noon, except Saturday, at 50 cents a copy, or $1.00 per month.
Subscriptions by the week, $1.00.
The contents of this paper are copyrighted
by the author, who may be consulted in regards to the same.

NEW ORLEANS.
THURSDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 7, 1861.
SUBSCRIPTIONS BY THE WEEK.

The contents of this paper are copyrighted
by the author, who may be consulted in regards to the same.

States of America To-Day.

The South will not at this time, if ever, be able to sustain itself without the aid of the Foreign Powers.

By G. W. & Co., at 10 o'clock, private rooms, Old Opera House, New Orleans.

Books and stationery, with all kinds of goods.

WHAT CAN BE EXPECTED.

The Washington Conference is a foolish and of course unnecessary meeting.

What will it do? nothing, if not, at the very best, to postpone the final decision of the question.

It is a waste of time and money.

</div