LEGISLATIVE DOCUMENTS.

At this particular juncture we are flooded with the annual reports made to the Legislature by the various functionaries of the State, and in compliance with a duty we owe the public, are compelled to furnish brief abstracts of their contents, not unfrequently to the exclusion of more interesting matter. We shall endeavor to get through the unpleasant task as speedily as possible.

MEXICO.

ARRIVAL OF STEAMSHIP TENNESSEE.

The steamship Tennessee, Captain Forbes, arrived in port last evening, having left Vera Cruz on the 21st instant. She brings five cabin passengers—Captain F. Buisson, Captain Desparnet, W. R. Spofford, C. Gautier and child; besides seven steerage passengers, and $24,121 16, consigned as follows:

Laborde & Xiques	$8,000
Wm. Prehn & Co	4,800
J. Y. de Egaza	4,000
T. B. Blanchard & Co	1,600
F. Fernandes & Co	1,600
Adams's Express	1,431
F. de Fuentes & Co	1,500
	$24,131

The Tennessee left at Vera Cruz the American bark Wildfire, which was to sail for New York on the 1st proximo.

Mexico is in a complete state of anarchy, and disorder prevails throughout the country. Almost all the mail stages to and from Vera Cruz and the capital have been robbed.

Don Pantaleon Barrera, Governor of Yucatan, resigned in favor of Gen. D. Martin Perages; thereupon the besiegers and besieged, in and out of Campeachy, ceased to fire upon one another, and professed mutual friendship.

The Legislature of Vera Cruz published a manifest, at the close of their session, explanatory of the stand they had taken against Comonfort.

Every State, and almost every town, was pronouncing against the Dictator and the plan of Tacubaya.

The friends and opponents of the new government had a grand military turn out on the 15th inst., and seemed disposed to begin the war in earnest. But after a little reflection they came to the prudent conclusion that discretion was the better part of valor, and so reserved their fire for a better opportunity.

The Leavenworth correspondent of the Democrat, of this city, says that, so far as heard from, the free State party had secured thirty-one out of the forty-four delegates elected, and fourteen out of the nineteen of the Senators; and the vote against the Constitution is about equal to that polled at the October election.

A gentleman who left the Territory on the 11th states that it was then believed that the Lecompton Constitution was elected.

WILMINGTON, Madison, Jan. 15.—Governor Randall delivered his message to-day. Among other matters, he discusses the banking law of the State, and advises such action as will check the evils growing out of it. He recommends an investigation into the charges of bribery and corruption in the distribution of public lands under the act of 1856. He advocates a Pacific railroad by the Northern route, and discusses the slavery question at length. Rabid Republican grounds. He is opposed to federal encroachment to benefit the slave power.

Mr. Harper moved to amend by inserting five. After some discussion on the amendment, it was lost, and the resolution passed. Mr. Boggs gave notice that he would move a reconsideration.

Mr. Fuller gave notice of a bill to organize a Board of Public Works.

Two veto messages from the Governor were read—one vetoing the act granting pay for a slave sent to the Penitentiary for twenty-five years; the other stops the present action of a bill to relieve certain landowners in the Second Drainage District of New Orleans. No constitutional objection is urged to the latter bill, but the Governor thinks it would establish a dangerous precedent.

The reports of the State Engineer and the Administrators of the Charity Hospital were received.

The House adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

FURTHER BY THE AMERICA.

The America reached Halifax on the 16th instant.

GREAT BRITAIN.—The British revenue returns for the year show a decrease in receipts for the last quarter of about £600,000 sterling, and a decrease on the year of about £7,000,000 sterling. This decrease principally arises from reduced taxation, although the commercial depression had a material influence towards the close of the year.

The official programme of the ceremonies to be observed on the marriage of the Princess Royal appears in the Court Circular.—The wedding is definitely fixed for January 25th.

The London Times reviews the report of the United States Ambassador for Turkish Affairs, and endorses the policy which looks to the civilization of the Indians in America.

FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.—In London, on the 20th, there was a slightly increased demand for money to meet the requirements of the end of the year, and also a more extensive country drawing up for silver to export to India. This gave rise to an impression that a reduction of Discount would renew the drain to the Continent.

The terms of a loan proposed to be raised by the Norwegian government are understood to have been arranged with Baring and Co. The loan will be small, but the premium named is not fixed.

On Thursday came little disappointment was felt that a further reduction of the rate of discount was not made by the Bank of England, but it was supposed that the meeting was postponed until after the payment of the January dividends, and there was only a slight demand for money at the bank.

No new failures had occurred, and the year closed more favorably than was anticipated.

The West India mail steamer had arrived, with over $1,000,000 in specie.

The Paris Bourse on the 19th ruddied their rate of discount on deposits to four per cent.

LIVERPOOL, Saturday.—The Times's city article says: The year 1857 has commenced under circumstances of unusual depression, and scarcely have the first few days of the new year passed away, when a fresh panic has arisen, the consequence of which will be felt for a long time to come. The failure of the Bank of Glasgow, on the 14th of December, was the first of the series, and was followed by the suspension of the Western Bank of Scotland, and the City of Glasgow Bank, with liabilities of £1,200,000 sterling. The failure of the Western Bank has been more disastrous than that of the City of Glasgow Bank, as the former has been the principal support of the Scotch banks, and the shock has been felt throughout the whole country. The Western Bank had 135 branches, and the City of Glasgow Bank had 133 branches. The Western Bank had £1,000,000 sterling of deposits, and the City of Glasgow Bank £800,000 sterling. The Western Bank had £1,000,000 sterling of bills under discount, and the City of Glasgow Bank £600,000 sterling. The Western Bank had £1,000,000 sterling of bills under discount, and the City of Glasgow Bank £600,000 sterling. The Western Bank had £1,000,000 sterling of bills under discount, and the City of Glasgow Bank £600,000 sterling.

The Glasgow Post Office, in the Parish of Barony, has been closed by the Postmaster General, and the business transferred to the Glasgow Post Office, in the Parish of Gorbals
