NEW-ORLEANS. Monday Morning, May 23, 1831.

The Mobile mail which came to hand on Sa turday last, brought New-York papers to the Oth, Charleston to the 12th and Boston to the 5th inst. Their columns are entirely barren of news; there has not been a single arrival from

. Lurone. The composition of the cabinet of Washington is net yet fully ascertained; it appears certain, however, that E. Livingston, Esq. her been prumoted to the secretaryship of State. He presence great taleats and high legislative qualities: the people will be able to judge of the extent of his conceptions in his ministerial capacities; he is called upon to exercise them in an elevated sphere. The task, which Mr. Li vingstou has entailed upon himself, in accepting the invitation, is immense, and arduous if he attempt, not to conciliate all parties -- that would be attempting impossibilities—but to give cause of dissatisfaction to the fewest possible. . e d not, however, believe him inf rior to the un ter taking. The resources of a great mind, an sound judgment are incalculable. Until we ar made acquainted with those who are to be called to share his labours, we wish him success-quad bonum faustumque sit, and feel convinced that, like certain French ministers of contemporane ous manufacture, he will not verify the old a dage : Tel brille au second rang qui s'éclipse au premier.

We are requested to state, that "the Hon-E. Livingston arrived in the City on Thursday in one of Messrs. Stockton and Stokes' elegant steel spring coaches, by way of the Rail Road. at an early hour.'

Mr. Livingston has, we understand, entered on the duties of the office. Nut. Jour.

Louisiana .- It is stated in a morning paper. that the Hon. James Brown may probably be From Charleston elected Senator in Congress from Louisiana, in place of Mr. Livingston. We can only say (and it is rather a singular fact in this country) From Jamaica From Camerchy that such a choice would be gratifying to all par From Camerony

The Senate -- Mr. Livingston having accepted the office of Secretary of State, and remared From St. Jago to Washington to enter upon the discharge of its From Marseilles duties, another vacancy will arise in the Semate, and the State of Louisiana will doubtless supply it, by the appointment of a sound National Republican. Mr. Brown, our late able and popular Minister to France, has been mentioned as a gentleman upon whom the dignified situation will be conferred .- N. Y. Com. Adv.

Columbia .- A letter from Carthagena, received by a friend, under date of March 27th, brings news of the route of Gen. Louis Urdaneta by Gen. Flores; and a report that the former had been shot by the latter. In consequence of this tranquility had been restered to the Southern departments, which had been disturbed, as we have before noticed, by L. Urdaneta, under the pretext that he wished to restore the integrity of the

It is believed, that in case New Grenada should free itself from the power of Urdaneta. and Montilla should be overwhelmed at Cartha gena, the Departments of the North and South will enter into explanations with her, for the purpose of preserving the integrity of the nation, and of establishing a good system of laws for the common benefit. This we believe is what is desired by liberal patriotic Colombians, and the nation generally. The military party have availed themselves of the pretext afforded by the divisions which they themselves had produced, to hold themselves up as the restorers of the unity of the Republic, to impose upon the minds of some both at home and abroad.

Another letter we are informed, brings the inthat Gen. Monargus, (who was oppoing Pacz in Venezuela.) on hearing of medeath of Gen. B liver, had agreed to my down in arms on certain consideration.
