THE ELECTION.

In this issue of our journal we are enabled to lay before our readers very full returns of the election held yesterday. The vote of the parish of Orleans will be found accurate and complete, and in addition to this we give the result of the election in Jefferson parish and a large quantity of returns by telegraph from nearly every part of the country.

PARISH OF ORLEANS.—In our own parish, consisting of the city of New Orleans and Algiers, the vote stands for the Bell and Everett, 2214; for Douglas and Johnson, 2895, and for Breckinridge and Lane, 3642. The plurality of Bell over Douglas is 2219, and his plurality over Breckinridge is 3572. The total vote cast was 10,851.

The result in this parish has proven a disappointment to the men of each party. In the first place the total vote falls far below what was expected. With 17,375 registered voters, it was supposed on all hands that over two-thirds of this number would exercise the elective franchise, whereas there were only 10,469 votes polled in the city proper, five of which were irregular. Then the Bell and Everett men generally disposed to put a larger plurality upon Breckinridge, while the Breckinridge men hoped to run a majority over Douglas in the city. Even Douglas men even entertained expectations of carrying the city.

The vote of Orleans parish for Bell and Breckinridge, as compared with that for Pilsmore and Beckmann in 1856, shows a falling off of 854 from Bell's majority, but as compared with the many recent Gubernatorial votes for Wells and Moore, Bell gains [illegible].

We may add, by the way, however, for the good information of parties to know that the election passed off in our city without a single disturbance, even of the most trifling nature. This pleasing fact is to be attributed in a great measure to the determination of every citizen soldier to engage in nor countenance violence under any circumstances, and also to the prompt and efficient discharge of duty by the Mayor, Mr. Gilmore, who, when mounted most earnestly and effectually by the Chief of Police, Mr. McClelland, with the entire police force, and by Messrs. Hébert and Mingle, with their corps of telegraphic operators. The transformation, going through the press, then the telegraph wires were in motion, and the news of the election of a portion of the city during the whole day, without doubt, had due effect in restraining any persons who might have been riotously disposed. The value of the city telegraph in a single day, on such an occasion, becomes at least equal to its whole cost. We were glad to see, too, that the Mayor's proclamation, ordering the closing of coffee-houses, was announced as it has been, if ever, been before. We learn that in only three instances opposition was made to the military direction, and then the obstinate proprietors were arrested by the police and their saloons closed.

The vote in this city for a Commissioner of the Board of Public Works resulted in a total vote of 9310, of which 4677 were cast for Mr. Louis Hébert, 3269 for Col. W. H. Sparks and 2344 for Mr. F. M. Kent. The latter gentleman was known to be in favor of Douglas. Col. Sparks for Bell, and Mr. Kent for Breckinridge, cannot be range as having had much influence over the vote cast for them. Mr. Hébert was a gentleman well known and very popular here, and highly qualified for the position, having been a resident of West Point. The large vote given is a flattering compliment to his general worth and character.
