Red-montel, Dec. 12.—The Conservative Con-rection must this morning. A series of resolu-tions reported and untatinously adopted are in substance, as follows.

The first recognizes that by the result of the war elavery has been shollished, and it is not the desire of the people of Virginia to reduce to alevery again the people emancipated by the events of the war, and by amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

The second asserts the right of Virginia to be restored to the United and declares her inten-tion in good faith to perform her duties to the Unit. Union
