THE DAILY BEE

ESTABLISHED DAILY (SUNDAYS EXCEPTED) AT No. 73 Chartres street.

NEW ORLEANS:

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 2.

ARRIVAL OF THE CREOLE.—We received, last evening, a dispatch stating that the Creole had passed the bar at 5:30 P. M. She brings New York dates to the 24th. ult. and will be here this morning, in time for our evening paper to give the latest Northern news contained in her files.

SCHOOL OF THE BROTHERS OF THE SACRED HEART.—Notice is elsewhere given that the day school conducted by the Brothers of the Sacred Heart, at No 77 Union street, will be opened on Monday, the 5th of September. Seven or eight boarding scholars can be accommodated at the establishment.

THE PRICE CURRENT.—This old and valuable mercantile favorite of New Orleans resumed yesterday the publication of its large newspaper sheet, and in it appears one of those elaborate complete and reliable "annual statements" which in former years so highly contributed to its reputation in the commercial world. The publication of this full sheet will be twice a week during the business season, and the letter sheet will be continued as heretofore. The proprietors, Messrs Young, Bright & Co., announce that they have been compelled to revise their rates according to the war standard of prices.

ST CHARLES THEATRE PREPARING FOR A SEASON.—In a previous reference to the amusement prospects for the coming season no mention was made of preparations or anticipations regarding the part to be played by the St. Charles Theatre in the dramatic campaign of next winter. Nothing had transpired on this head from which any definite idea of the St. Charles programme could be deduced. At present, however, the arrival of Mr T. W. Davey, stage manager of the St Charles, gives a clearer view of the matter. We understand he has set about the entire renovation of the establishment in order to have it in first trim for a vigorous season of varied entertainment which, it may be hoped, will be under the immediate superintendence of Mr. Ben De Bar.

WAR TELEGRAM MAKING MAP.—A map of a somewhat unique description by this name is for sale by S. A. Schmitz, bookseller, 93 Exchange Alley. It is drawn on an unusually large scale, and includes in the great fields of military operations in Virginia and Maryland. In illustration and notation it is made very distinct, the lines being wide apart and the names of places and roads being kept from crowding each other, so that plenty of space is left for marking changes of position by the respective armies with red and blue pencil as indicated from time to time by telegrams from the seat of war.

STEAMER HILLMAN SUNK.—The Empress reports that the steamer Hillman was sunk on the 23rd ult. by striking the bar at Dog-tooth Bend above Cairo. She is supposed to be a total loss.

The arrival last night about 11 o'clock of the steamer Empress, Capt Molloy, from St. Louis, supplies us with St. Louis dates of the 25th, and Memphis dates of the 26th ult., containing advices from the North as late as the 25th

Our thanks are due to Captain John Milley and Tim Moore clerk, of the fine steamer Empress, for esteemed newspaper favors.

One Day Later via the River.

Dates from the North and the West to the 25th August.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER EMPRESS.

Gold in New York on the 24th 235½, Cotton 188 to 190,

From Gen. Grant's Command—More About the Battle of the 21st—Alleged Treachery of Gen. Haywood or Hagood.

(From the St. Louis Democrat, 25th August.)

New York, Aug. 24.—The morning papers furnish very little news in addition to what was telegraphed last night.

The Herald's 18th corps correspondent says our forces were ordered from Deep Bottom on the night of the 20th. Important co-operative movements by the 10th corps commenced this morning, the details of which will reach you at a later moment.

The Herald's correspondent gives the following particulars of the late General Hayward's gallantry in the battle of the 21st. He says he found themselves under a quadruple fire of musketry and artillery, which caused them to throw down their pieces, and raise their arms in token of surrender.

General Cutler sent Captain Daly, of his staff, to receive them as prisoners. Our forces having passed Gregg, Daly told Haywood he had been sent to receive the brigade as prisoners. Without saying a word, Hay wood drew his revolver and shot Captain Daly.

Captain Daly lived half an hour, but long enough to make his statement. Hay wood, after the shooting of Daly, called on his men to pick up their muskets and fall back, which order they attempted to obey.

Our men again fired, when they again threw down their pieces, and at the same time gave themselves up as prisoners. The second volley added large numbers to their killed, and among them Hay wood, who was shot through the head.

The prisoners numbered between 200 and 300. After two hours fighting the battle ended.

The same correspondent states the rebels report that the rebel General Hooke was killed in that day.

Headquarters Army of the Potomac, August 24, 1864.

No engagements since Sunday. The enemy has fallen back, as previously stated, to their lines, two miles from Petersburg, and are erecting strong works similar to those we encounter on turning to the rebels we work night and day, evidently expecting an attack.

Richmond papers acknowledge heavy loss in officers and men on Sunday, but claim they took 3,000 prisoners. Our losses in the 5th Corps are 17 officers and 132 men killed, 74 officers and 881 are wounded, 99 officers and 2853 den missing. The 9th Corps lost about 300, which makes the total loss 3255 in three commands. No doubt many will turn up at Crawfords.

From the Potomac.

THE MILITARY SITUATION ON THE BORDER.

Philadelphia, August 24.—The Bulletin has the following special.

Harper's Ferry, August 24.—The position of our army is still unchanged. A strong line of intrenchments has been thrown up in front.

Doubtless skirmishing could be heard all day yesterday and this morning. It broke out with redoubled strength in front of the 19th corps, which is holding the center. Nothing of importance, however, resulted from it, and it has now almost entirely ceased.

Three o'clock, Midnight.—No evidences of the enemy being in our immediate front has been obtained as yet, and it is believed they will make no attempt to cross the river, although our latest news from Williamsport says they had not yet crossed the Potomac. Guns could be heard yesterday in the rear, supposed to be Averill shelling the woods in the direction of Sharpsburg. Our army is lying quietly in their intrenched camps.

Gen Max Weber has been relieved from the command at Harper's Ferry, and ordered to report for duty in the Department of the Susquehanna. Gen. Stevenson now has command at Harper's Ferry.

Baltimore, August 24.—Reliable information is on the Upper Potomac shows that the report of the rebels having crossed the river is incorrect. Nothing beyond picket firing has transpired to-day. It is believed by many that the rebels are falling back

Skirmish in the Shenandoah Valley.

New York, August 24.—A Harper's Ferry dispatch to the Herald, dated eleven thirty A. M. on the 23d inst., states that skirmishing commenced early this morning on the right and extended along the whole line. The rebels made several charges, which drove our lines in, and were rapidly driven through the town on the Harper's Ferry pike

The rebels followed up very close. The whole army is now strongly posted on the heights on the rear of this town. The enemy is close upon us, but seeing us thoroughly prepared they may not risk an engagement. Should they do so your readers may look for some very interesting news.

THE RESERVE AGAIN REPORTED TO HAVE CROSSED THE POTOMAC.

Baltimore, Aug. 24.—Reports have been received here, via Northern Central railroad, that the rebels have crossed the river. The reports need confirmation. Nothing direct has been received from the Upper Potomac.

From Nashville, Tenn.

REBEL RAID.—A WAGON TRAIN CAPTURED.—THE SITUATION BEFORE ATLANTA.—WOUNDING OF MAJOR GENERAL DODGE AND GENERAL LIGHTBURN, THE FORMER MORTALLY, &c., &c.

(Special Dispatch to the St. Louis Democrat.)

Nashville, August 24.—You need not expect early important news from this Department. It is generally conceded that we are waiting for the concentration of other points important matters.

Wheeler appeared at Stewart's Landing, on the Tennessee river, on the 20th, and started 278 men engaged in getting lumber for the Chattanooga mills. He destroyed 44 wagons and camp equipage. The colored garrison was captured, and three colored soldiers were murdered after they had surrendered. Thomas Heard, company A, 40th Indiana, and one citizen were also killed, and four or five men wounded. Of the laborers, only 54 escaped capture. General Dodge still survived his wounds on the 23d, and it was thought he would get well. Master, reminded another time.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Your correspondent Mr. Mabery reached the city to day from Atlanta, having left on the 19th. He brings the following summary of the situation there:

The army is lying in its old position strengthening the fortifications and skirmishing with the enemy.

The rebels are now hastily engaged in constructing some of the first they have claimed by our batteries. Captain Walker's battery is 700 dis gone, 16th army corps, completely demolished one of their forts yesterday.

On the 19th, Major General Dodge, while on picket line, examining the enemy's position, was shot in the left forehead, and seriously wounded. On the 20th, Lightburn, the new corps commander learned he had died. General Lightburn was wounded in the same way on the 20th.

New York, Aug. 25.—The Herald's Nashville despatch of the 24th says: Mosties at Atlanta are unchanged. The army is engaged in advancing parapets, and strengthening their works.

Items from Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24.—Governor Brough has issued a proclamation to persons in Ohio who are preparing to resist the draft, warning them to desist from such purpose.

Fernando Wood, in a speech at Dayton last night, asserted that peace men on a peace platform would be nominated at Chicago, and that the convention would be harmonious.

The Gazette's Chattanooga correspondence say neither Colonel Steedman nor Colonel Streight was injured at Dalton, and that both are well.

Items via New York.

New York, August 24.—By the arrival of the U. S. steamer Haze, from New Orleans, we learn that the new pirate steamer Doguette, which is one of the number now at Wilmington, is receiving her armament, which is considered the most formidable of them, and will be the first to leave that port, if not already out.

New York, August 24.—The frigate Sangeadanda returned from an unsuccessful search for the pirate Talahassee. She has been cruising about the Island of Bermuda. She left there on the 20th.

Gold and Cotton in New York.

New York, August 24, P. M.—Cotton—Less active, at $1 88 to $1 90 for middling uplands. Gold opened at 235, and after selling at 235 closed dull at 235½.

Late News via Mobile.

Dates to the 25th of August

Later from the North.—More Peace Rumors.—The Rebels Claim Victories in Virginia.—Movements of Gen. Sherman's Army.—The Capture of Clinton Suspected.—Movement from Vicksburg.

A friendjhas kindly furnished us with the Mobile Tribune of the 26th, 27th and 28th instant, from which we take the following:

Richmond, August 26th.—Official dispatches state that Gen. Hill attacked the enemy on the Weldon road on Sunday morning and drove him from his advance lines to his entrenchments capturing over three hundred prisoners.

Our loss was principally in Hagood's brigade, which mounted the enemy's entrenchments, but its supports failing, many were captured.

Dispatches from Atlanta state that the enemy's cavalry, which struck the Macon Railroad on the 19th, were met on the 20th by a portion of our forces and routed, losing two stands of colors and our piece of artillery.

Richmond, August 22.—The Baltimore Gazette of the 20th is received.

It says that Grant captured five hundred prisoners on the north side of the James river.

The object of the expedition was to prevent our forces from throwing his men by cutting a canal across the point.

Petersburg states that trains came through from Chattanooga yesterday.

The Chattanooga Gazette of the 23d states that Wheeler destroyed the depot at Cleveland, Tenn., and burned the town

Atlanta, Aug 26.—The enemy have massed between Poor's ferry and Campbelltown road, and abandoned the entire line on the right of the Chattanooga railroad.

Sherman's order dated the 25th, directing the reduction of rations, was picked up in their deserted camps

Sharp skirmishing on the left all the afternoon.

Atlanta, Aug 26.—For some cause the Federal batteries are silent this morning

Last night a shell struck the Presbyterian church on Marietta street, and exploded in the basement, where a number of citizens had sought shelter. A fragment of the shell cut off the arm of a citizen's little boy on a bed in the house; no other casualties happened.

Scouts report the Yankees again destroying the Georgia Railroad below Decatur.

Lieut. Col G. J. Henry, Jr., was temporarily appointed Provost Marshal General of this army.

Col. G. W. Gordon, 11th Tennessee Regiment, is appointed Brigadier General and assigned to Gen Vanzhn's brigade.

Meridian, August 26.—The lines at Vicksburg are completely closed for the next twenty days, and ingress and egress are not allowed under any circumstances.

It is thought that another movement is on hand, as all the horses in the city were being impressed by the Yankees.

The telegram announcing Memphis by Forrest left here for Canada this morning

Clyde, August 26.—Col. Scott fought the enemy on the suburbs of Clinton, yesterday, and drove them back one mile. The fight was dispersate, our men charging them gallantly. The enemy received reinforcements and recovered their ground, and now occupy Clinton. Our forces are near Clinton. The enemy's forces is reported at about six thousand infantry and cavalry, with thirty pieces of artillery. Prisoners captured say their intention is to remain in Clinton, but it is not believed. Telegraphic communication is open to within six miles of Clinton.

(From the Mobile Tribune, August 28th.)

MAY CAPTURED.—From certain signs that have lately met the vision of our manifest, the friends of the Confederate cause need not be surprised to hear that Gens. Hardy and Canby will have on for their trouble, twelve to their bondsmen then Mobile Bay. Memphis was one of these surprises, which, like flags of thunder, somewhat startled the country from a clear sky in times of war. There is a Confederate army superior in strength, and greatly superior in fighting resources, to that under the New Orleans Generals, within striking distance of the Crescent City A blow from it is far more within the range of probabilities than the late sweep of Forrest on Memphis.

FROM OUR YESTERDAY EVENING EDITION.

THE LATE EX-GOV. HENRY JOHNSON.—The death of this old and once prominent citizen of Louisiana occurred at his plantation in Point Coupee Parish on the 4th ult. The deceased was a native of Mississippi, but early became a citizen of Louisiana where, after holding several offices under the Territorial Government he was for one term Governor of the State and twice United States Senator. He retired from public life in 1849, and was bordering on ninety when he died.

THE NEW ORLEANS CATTLE MARKET.—Some one has compiled a table showing the receipts at the New Orleans Cattle Market for the year ending August 31st. 1864, by which it appears that the aggregate figures were: Beef Cattle, 19,713; Veal Cattle, 10,583; Milch Cows, 1,837; Hogs, 29,593; Sheep, 14,554. It is stated that the fluctuations in the prices of Western Beef during the same period ranged from 10 to 30 cents for first quality.

DEATH OF A BATON ROUGE CITIZEN.—On the 21st instant Lewis Fowler departed this life at his residence, on Government street, Baton Rouge, in the 70th year of his age. Mr. Fowler was a native of Massachusetts, and for many years a resident of Baton Rouge. Now, 11 and 14, say about low bar, in bulk on private terms.
