SOLE DEPOSIT OF THE PARAGUAY-ROUX,

An Infallible Remedy for Tooth-Ache. L. CHOISENE, still the agent for the sale of that precious remedy of Messrs. Roux and Chais, which he considers it useless to recall here the virtues of the Paraguay-Roux, better known only by the success it has obtained, than by the praises bestowed on it by the public papers, thinks it necessary to inform the public that as sole agent of the Paraguay-Roux, he will not guarantee its efficacy unless not only the bottles be taken from his store, but that besides they bear the label of L. Choise, depositaire. Therefore, he invites those persons who have already made use of the Paraguay-Roux, as well as those who may be in need of it, not to mistake it for the Elixir of Paraguay, the Balsam of Paraguay and numerous other compositions of that kind which do not resemble in the least the Paraguay-Roux, of Roux and Chais, the sole deposit of which is at the store of the above named, Royal street, No. 243, between St. Ann and Dumaine. nov. 23

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

WHEREAS I have lately understood that a certain individual is now preparing and now sending throughout the United States, an imitation of my celebrated Catholicon, purporting to possess the same virtues, and as it is supposed will be for sale in the city of New-Orleans, the public are particularly cautioned against purchasing it. It is supposed to be similar to the Catholicon of the late Dr. Williams, and calculated to do much mischief. I trust the unsuspecting will be on their guard against these frauds, and purchase of no other persons but P. DUCONGE and MONAGY & Co. who are my only authorized agents for New-Orleans, and from whom the Genuine Poter's Catholicon, does not had fresh from my factory at Philadelphia. WM. POTER, Ninth street, Philadelphia.

POTER'S CELEBRATED Catholicon.

ONLY TWO DOLLARS PER BOTTLE. [?] The component parts of this medicine are purely Vegetable.—It therefore one of the safe and best of a SOVEREIGN REMEDY in diseases of the liver, enlarged spleen, debility resulting from Intemperance and dissipation, scrofula and king's evil, and in various ulcers, pains in the bones, rheumatism, dyspepsia, or indigestion, diseases of the lungs, syphilis, blotches on the face and skin, itching, swelling of the joints, tetter, mercurial discharges, piles, &c.

The certificates of wonderful cures performed by the Catholicon, have become so numerous as to preclude their insertion in any newspaper.—The unrivaled and very extensive circulation which it has enjoyed, for the last six years, in which it has been used by the most distinguished physicians, both in hospitals and in private practice, is a substantial basis for its future utility. It has obtained its present great distinction by the extraordinary success which has attended it in the healing art, while every avenue and link have been searched in vain for its parallel;—the discovery is one of the most sacred boons that can be afforded to the unfortunate martyr of disease, and it is most sincerely to be wished that the sympathy of the public will be crossed to the promulgation of its inestimable merits. Beasts of the value of Poter's genuine Catholicon, its healing powers; its usefulness as a general restorer of health; the city of Philadelphia also could furnish thousands of witnesses, to contradict the base and malicious fabrications which daily emanate from the jealous.

What, we would ask, can be a stronger proof of its utility, than its success in the Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia Alma House, and in other public institutions alike serviceable, where the eminent skill which presides over them had been exhausted in vain. "These pills speak trumpet tongue!"—and cannot be denied. It is much to be lamented that there are many spurious mixtures manufactured in imitation of this invaluable medicine, some containing the same titles—some have gone to the extreme of refilling the old bottles with the same, or whitening them, to fish the public, and published for their benefit the very certificates which the proprietor of the Genuine Catholicon had obtained from those who were cured by its medicine, of various distressing diseases. There has been some attested by every form of envy, jealousy and spite, and thereby prevented the extending the usefulness of this great and long wished for remedy.

Just received, direct from the manufactory of the proprietor, a fresh supply of the Genuine Poter's Catholicon, for sale at the wholesale and retail Drug, Medical and Chemical warehouses of P. F. DUCONGE, sept 21 Corner of Chartres and Conti streets.
