SALES AT AUCTION. PLANTATION MOSSY, in lots, at public auc tion.—The subscriber begs leave to notify the public, that having been repeatedly solicited for years past, to divide and lay off into town lots, (by persons desirous of purchasing and establishing themselves there;) his beautiful, and in point of situation, unique, country seat, (believing that the time has now arrived, when the public interest, requires that it should be done,) has, in consequence formed a plan thereof, assisted by Joseph Piles, Esq. the city surveyor, on a grand and extensive scale, and will offer it for sale in lots, at nullific suction, at Hewletth success house, on veyor, on a grand and extensive scale, and will ofter it for sale in lots, at public auction, at Hewlett's office house, on Wednesday, the 27th day of February inst. at 12 o'clock, on a credit of one, two, and three years, with notes, satisfactorily endorsed, and mortgage on the property till final payment. To my fiellow citizens generally, nothing further than the above notification would be necessary, but for the information of the great number of strangers now among us, I will add, that this estate, now laid off into town lots, is situated on the right bank of the river Mississippi, immediately in front of the city of New Orleans, (covering its point, from opposite the lower market answe, we to the distributed the lower market series, up to the custom house, that its site is not equalled in beauty by any other in the neighborhood of New Orleans, and that it pusteesses many and great advantages. The city, and harbor of New Orleans, laying in front of it, (the whole of which the river. is taken in by the eye at a single glance,) with the river, and adjacent suburbs on either hand, makes the view from it magnificent and delightful. Its harbor is excellent, from it inagnificent and delightful. Its harbor is excellent, and in point of security for vessels, greatly superior to that of New Orleans, as it is defended by its bank had position, from the most dangerous winds; and possesses a bold shore with water of sufficient depth for vessels of the largest class; ships, in consequence, can heave down, or load and unlead their cargoes there; with great facility; and the time is not distant, when in its magazines and storehouses, will be deposited a great part of the productions of for vast interior. one cargoes there, with great factify; and the time is not distant, when in its magazines and storehouses, will be demosited a great part of the productions of for vast interior. From the situation of this town, it must rapidly increase, laving (as it does) in between the two towns of Macdoniush on one side, and Daverges on the other; with the streets and avenues of which towns, the streets and avenues of which towns, the streets and avenues of this, are made to intersect and correspond. on this, are made to intersect and correspond. Nothing is wanted to give an immediate and great value to property on the opposite side of the river to New Orleans, and to inon the opposite side of the fiver to New Orleans, and to his duce persons in easy circiumstances to reside there with their families, in preference to residing on the city side, but two steam ferry hoars, which would constantly ply between the two banks, (which boats are now about to be ostablished.) Were those boats now a running, would any man of common sense, let me ask, any mechanic, carter, drayman, common sense, let me ask, any mechanic carter, drayman, the sity methage procommon sense, let me ask, any meenanc, carter, urayman or laborer, whose business lay in the city, purchase property or reside in the suburbs Lafayette or Livandais, (requiring a walk through the mud or hot sun, of three miles to reach their house, and three miles back, to return, when they might cross the river, and be at their home in five minutes time—certainly no, not one. Even now, with the common boats used as a ferry, the river is crossed in six or eight minutes, (it being mineteen hundred feet only in width,) so that a person living on the other side of the river, may leave Mr. Hewlett's coffee house, and be at home in eight or ten minutes with all ease. In point of health, (the yellow fever never having been on that side of the river,) and the elevation of the land, it is not exceeded by any situation on the river. As those lots will be sold without reserve, for such prices as shall be offered, it is but seldom that such opportunities for good investments occur. The plan, [which is one offering great advantages,] will be exhibited at the toffee house in a few days.

ALSO, after the sale of the lots, a gang of 40 slaves belonging to me, will be sold at a credit of t and 2 years.

New Orleans, July 2d, 1832.

On the invitation of Mr. Dolbear, a Teacher of Penmansing, in our city, upon the Carstafrian system; we have carefully examined specimens of the writings of his pupils, whose ages range from 5 to 50 years, written through an entire course of instruction; and afth having done so, it is with the highest satisfaction, that we can testify to the rapid if not unparalleled, progress which they have made.

From the specimens seen, and the examination of the system made, we cannot withhold the expression of a concurrent opinion, that the system is greatly apperior to any hitherto taught. If to write legibly, elegantly, rapidly, and in good laste, be an accomplishment, useful or desirable, it is upon the principles of this system that it is to be acquired. We therefore anxiously solicit of the public a liberal prironage in favor of an lustructor, whose qualifications are of the highest order, and whose labors promise to be acquired. A. B. Roman, Governor of the State of Lonisians; D. Prieur, Mayor of the City of New Orleans; Rev. C. Maenhut; Rev. O. L. Nash, A. Grailhe, Esq; Rev. (t. Winslow; J. W. Egnew, Esq; Wm C. Pope, Esq; D. Morphey, Esq; L. Bringier, Surveyor General.

From an examination of the system, according to which for meramination of the system, according to which proficiency of many of his pupils, I feel the utmost confidence in recommending him as the ablest teacher of the art of penmanship, with whom I have ever met. His deportment, also, is that of a gentleman.
