NEWS OF THE DAY. NEWS OF THE DAY.

The steemer El Paraguay, from Charleston, arrived at Kingston on the 24th ult, with two slaves on board, who had been secreted on board by the steward. Great excitement was afterwards occasioned by a report that other slaves were found on board by the Captain, and pet in irons. A most of negroes consequently assembled, and became so threatening that the magistrates were forced to search the ship, in order to pacify them. In the meantime, parties of negroes had gone off in honts, and commenced an attack on the steamer, but they were effectually resisted. Another party of negroes went to Port Royal to induce the
