At 12 o'clock, Mr. Atkinson, at 10 o'clock, corner Camp street, furniture, hardware, at 12 o'clock, at No. 32 Camp street, hardware, at 12 o'clock, at No. 32 Camp street.

By E. M. Jacobs, at 10 o'clock, on Washington place, between Ursuline and Orleans street, hardware.

The auction of the trade is called to three very important sales by R. T. Montgomery, which take place this day, (Friday the 14th).

The first, at 10 o'clock, at the store corner of Jules and Chartres street, of a large and entire stock of hardware, consisting of very desirable steel goods, hammers, tools, materials, paints, nail, naval and boat stores, &c. The above stock is very large and well assort'd, intended for contractors, dealers and account-masters of purchasers, and should insure the entire appearance of the trade.

The second, at 11 o'clock, at St. Camp street, in Army Hall, upstairs, of a large assortment of hardware, machinery, tools, implements, surgical supplies, &c.

The third sale, at 12 o'clock, at St. Camp street, of 400 barrels choice extra flour, just landed from steamer Parker, the greater portion made from new selected wheat for family use. See advertisements.

The sale of corn, oats, bran, beans, &c., is to be taken place yesterday on the levee, at 10 o'clock, at the auction mart. See our advertisement.
