GREAT SALE OF TOWN PROPERTY.

ON Monday, the 2d day of October next will commence at Chamberlain, Hickman Co &'s, one of the greatest sales of town property which has perhaps ever taken place, at least south. We, it will consist of about one hundred and seventy town lots in Columbus, of various sizes, from half acre and small fifty to upwards of forty acres, of every age and situation to suit every taste and convenience. The buildings now erected at the town of Columbus, but on the Mississippi River. The value of this property is perhaps not to be equaled by that of any similar unimproved property on the Mississippi river, and the opportunity is now about to be offered for one of the most valuable investments of the kind which can probably be ever made.

Columbus is the nearest eligible point for a town to the head of navigation on the main Mississippi River, being but about 20 miles below the mouth of Yazoo. Persons wishing to purchase for speculation or to engage in the mercantile business will have an opportunity of buying on such terms as will render it impossible for them to lose money. Columbus is now the seat of justice for Lowndes county, one of the most wealthy and populous counties in the state of Mississippi, and will probably continue to be so for many years to come. Those who may wish to make a profitable investment of their money will find this a rare opportunity.
