Wednesday Morning, Jan. 23, 1850.

The length of the Governor's message, and the Report of the Grand Jury, do not only to omit all original material, but to exclude a large proportion of miscellaneous information.

We have no room this morning for comment upon the message of Governor Jourard.

GENERAL COUNCIL.—The official report of the last sitting of the General Council is unavoidably postponed until to-morrow.

Editorial Correspondence.

Baton Rouge, Monday, January 18, 1850.

I have barely time to give you a hasty account of the organization of the Legislature which assembled this day, at 12 o'clock, at the Capitol.

The Senate was organized by the election of Horatio Davis as Secretary, and Dr. George Davis as Assistant. Messrs. East, White, and H. Lanoue were chosen Trustees.

The House was organized by the election of Dr. G. W. Faxon as Speaker, Mr. J. W. Faxon as Vice-Speaker, and Mr. J. A. Jackson as Clerk.

The annual Committee having been appointed to wait upon the Governor, that functionary transmitted his message, which I send you a copy. Both branches of the Legislature adjourned immediately after the reading of the message.
