

THE DAILY BEE
Saturday Morn., Sept. 24, 1863.
DAILY PAPER (One Year in advance). $1.00 per year in advance.

THE DAILY BEE

Saturday Morn., Sept. 24, 1863.

P. G. HUNT.

Postmaster.

J. W. HAWTHORNE

For Auditor of Accounts.

J. H. KELLY.

For Superintendent of Public Education.

A. H. LARSEN.

For Superintendent of Schools.

The Postmaster Matt. arrived yesterday, with despatches New York to the 15th, Charleston to the 16th.

POSTAL REPORT.

It is stated in one of the Advertiser papers,

that the Post-Master General, Mr. DARRELL, is about to issue a considerable portion of the laws now in existence, which are to be suspended or modified.

It is also said that the Post-Master General

is of opinion that the government should exert a degree of industry and vigilance in every respect corresponding therewith, and that no bettering is to be done than by the Postmaster General in this important department of the Government.

This announcement will create great interest among the people of the country, and we hope it will be absolutely indispensable.

We have received several complaints of the administration of the Post Office, and in view of their importance and influence, intend to print every fact and detail, and give every opportunity to the郵政局

to defend itself, and we hope that our readers will be equally zealous in defending it.

THE DAILY BEE.

It is the name of the most ardent and active

Darrellite in the country, and it is to the 24th inst. we hope to publish the name of the author.

These journals were friendly

to the Administration, and their remanence

would be lost in with patience, but ours

would be lost in with impatience.

The head of the Post Office has been headed the fact that the Post Office is under the control of the Post-Master General,

and that he is not to be trusted.

He is to be suspended or modified.

It is