ACADEMIES.

POONAH PAINTING.

NO Art is so calculated to improve the taste as that of Drawing. No study, therefore, is more beneficial to youth, none more gratifying in the declining period of life,

Many, however, are discouraged in their first attempts, and relinquish the Art as impracticable; but after taking a few lessons in the Poonah style, their ready success will give them an inclination to pentry nature. The effort may be difficult at first, but the difficulty will speedily vanish, while the advantages will be solid, and the gratification excessive.

The Paints and Method of applying them are entirely new. In point of softness the painting much resembles a fine engraving in brilliancy and blending of colours, it surpasses all conception of the former style, but the greatest supremacy it posses over the ordinary method is, that a knowledge of it may be acquired in a very short time, even by those who possess no taste in drawing, and no knowledge of the use of the pencil.

Mr. DE LOS RIOS,

Teacher of the new Oriental Indian painting, &c. in 6 lessons, respectfully informs those ladies who are desirous of receiving lessons at their own residences, and who are unable to call at M. de Los Rios Studio, to send their address to his dwelling, corner of Dumain and Royal St under the Exchange of M. Guot. There will be six classes formed every month, [illegible] ranged thus:

1st Class drawing, painting, and golden on paper.
2d " [illegible] ib [illegible] ib on velvet, silk or cotton.
3d " [illegible] ib [illegible] ib on China or earthenware.
4th " [illegible] ib preparing, golden, painting brazes, and varnishing, on boxes.
5th " Preparing, golden, and forming fruits and flowers with colored brazes, &c.
6th " Golden, to silver over, borders, silvers, &c. on glass.

M. de Los Rios will give gratuitity to those prominent proficiency; so certain he is, from the manner in which he gives lessons, that a pupil must acquire a knowledge sufficient to allow them to depend upon their own exertions, after having taken the lessons; and, unless such be the result, they will not, and cannot, expect any remuneration whatever.

The room in which M. De Los Rios exhibit his specimens, is open to the public from 10 until 5, admittance may be gained by visiters obtained their names entrance in Dumaine Street.
