THE NEW ORLEANS DAILY BEE,
DUFOUR & LINET, Publishers.
Office, No. 75 Chartres street.
TERMS OF THE BEE:
Terms of Subscription—Daily, per annum, in advance, $15; quarterly, $4; monthly, $1.50.
Single Copies of the Paper—Single copies, 10 cents.
The Bee is published every Tuesday and Friday, Weekly, Subscription, $5 per annum, invariably in advance.
Rates of Advertising—Transient advertisements inserted at $1 per square, first insertion and 75 cents per square, each subsequent insertion.
Weekly, $1 50 per square.
Special Notices, inserted at discretion, to be charged as such by contract.
Three or Six-Col. Page, Monthly Advertisements, $75 and $50 per month.
Regular advertisers, who advertise largely, shall be allowed liberal terms. Those who have transient matter to send by express agents. In no case shall such matter exceed 20 per cent.
All business notices of Advertisements to be charged as regular, per line, each insertion.
Transient Advertisements must be paid for in advance.
All advertisements not specified for any number of insertions will be published at six times.
Bills sent with regular advertisers shall be rendered quarterly.
NEW ORLEANS:
SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 20, 1867.

Reception for the Directors.—It is with great pleasure that we call attention to the advertisement from Gen. Mower, in another column, that the Bureau of Refugees, etc., is now inviting visitors to decorate parents in this State, who ask the Agents of the Bureau, in the different parishes. These contributions have been freely received from the North, and Gen Mower solicits the kind offices of railroad and steamboat managers to aid him in the good work of disposing the gracious bounty to the needy, with the request that they will communicate their offers, in writing, to his headquarters, in this city. Such action will effect glorious results in the reconstruction of the South.

Our thanks are due to Mr. Morison for tickets to the "Grand Sacred Concert," which was given last night at St. Paul's (Episcopal) Church, corner Camp and Calliope streets. It was, indeed, a grand affair, and the many lovers of good music out upon the occasion were more than satisfied with the excellent performance of the sacred pieces selected for the occasion.

Soldier Concerts.—The Concert Saloon, corner of Camp and Common