L. DUPERRON, & E. DELCAMBRE, DRS DENTISTS

NO. 200 BOURBON STREET,

Between St. Philip and Maine.

MESSRS. DUPERRON & DELCAMBRE have the honor to inform the planters of St. Charles, St. John the Baptist, and St. James parishes, that Dr. Duperron, Dr. L. Delcambre will pass through those places in the course of the sickly season, with the intention of exercising the profession. Messrs. G. Duperron & E. Delcambre, who are in the habit of examining their patients gratuitously, those persons who may honor Mr. Delcambre with their confidence, that if they have any fault to find, their establishment, which is permanently fixed at New Orleans, will be promptly opened to them. All those to whom surgical operations may, with perfect confidence, apply to Mr. E. Delcambre, more especially for the insertion of artificial teeth, from a single one to a complete set, which he accomplishes by a new process that ensures the complete success. m17

DE BLANCHARD—Ex master to their Majesties the King and Queen of France, the Empress and Princess, Sole Professor to the Faculty of Medicine at Paris, and of New Orleans;

Fixes natural teeth, without the least pain, in imitation perfectly natural, from one tooth to a complete set.

Restores the sight of children, and corrects any deviation in their teeth;

He has had long experience, minute and constant practice, in France and America, on the dentes-diff, and the relative surgical operations, possessing at once the double and the teeth;

He possesses a composition, which, experience has effectually proved, renders the natural teeth, and the gums which surround them, proof against the effects of mercurial poisons and other causes, which have destroyed the teeth;

The above operation is made without any pain, and in the space of a few minutes.
