

The New Orleans Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 27, 1855.

THE DAILY BEE.

Friday Morning, April 27th, 1855.

THE NORTHERN MAIL failed yesterday from beyond Philadelphia.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The carrier who delivers the Bee to that portion of the Northern States, situated between the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers, takes sick, and the new carrier being somewhat ill, we have to request those of our subscribers, who may not receive their paper regularly, to give us notice of their name and residence, so that we may be able to furnish a regular office.

NOTES IN HANFORD.

A despatch in yesterday's paper states that the people of Kansas have issued a proclamation declining our Bazaar to be held there. This is literally true, and it is all the more pitiful, as the new carrier being somewhat ill, we have to request those of our subscribers, who may not receive their paper regularly, to give us notice of their name and residence, so that we may be able to furnish a regular office.

NOTES IN NEW YORK.

There is a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society to be held at the Hall of the American Anti-Slavery Society, on Saturday evening, April 25th, at 8 o'clock. The meeting will be opened long ago.

The leading paper in Kansas, the "Speaker," says, has been called off. Give liberty, or give us death.

"If the leading agents of the Government are not to be allowed to speak to us, we shall speak to each other."

There is a meeting of the Anti-Slavery Society to be held at the Hall of the American Anti-Slavery Society, on Saturday evening, April 25th, at 8 o'clock.

The Executive there must be something wrong.
