Executive Producer at Toil Films Pty Ltd

Director at Stone Movie Limited

November 2010 - Present (1 year 3 months)

In 1974, an Australian movie was released that broke box office records, astonished a lot of doubters, influenced some very prominent filmmakers and put its director on the outer with the local film industry establishment.

That movie was actor, writer, producer and director Sandy Harbutt's STONE, currently in line for a 21st century adaptation by Sydney based film production company, Stone Movie Limited.

2 people have recommended Elliott

"Elliott is a dutiful and productive Board member for Stone Movie Limited. He has added tremendous value to our Board through his acumen and skills as Film Producer and Executive Producer. He has strong business ethics and professional integrity. It is a pleasure to work with Elliott and I highly recommend him to any business situation."

— Jeff Beaumont, Chairman & Non Executive Director, Stone Movie Limited, worked directly with Elliott at Stone Movie Limited

"To Whom It May Concern: Elliott Yancey has represented me as a cinematographer for the last two years. When I first met him, he impressed me with his insight into film history and his knowledge of production, it was far superior to that of other producers I had met. I have known and worked with Elliott many times over the past few years, most recently on the film 'Road Train'. The shoot was demanding to say the least, particularly when dealing with a restricted budget. Elliott as a consultant was able to ascertain creative ways for the production to proceed without compromising the story telling and the visual cinematic quality of the film. He ensured the Director's vision was not compromised and maintained this within the allocated budget. He has given thoughtful and constructive advice to the many productions that I have been involved with, in relation to the story and the budget. His positive, charismatic personality and charm, makes you feel inclusive, it is nurturing and comforting to those with creative sensibilities and creates a positive ambience in any production. I have no hesitation recommending Elliott to any production in the future. If you require any more information please feel free to contact me anytime.
