Dear Freddy:
Not much to talk or write about as far as I'm concerned. Things have been awfully dull in Ann Arbor, rather unusual, but nevertheless true. All the parties are on week-ends and being away at that time we necessarily miss them. I told you it's a hard life. You ought to try it some time, a few days in high school would be a welcomed vacation.

Had a swell time in Chicago and didn't see Sally &anel either. Saw all of the fair in 25 minutes, at least all I wanted to see. Saw Olson & Johnson in "Take a Chance" really very grand, nice entertainment of course, reminded me of the "Melody Lane Co"; except for the admission price which was decidedly higher. Nevertheless had a marvelous time. Dean Everhardus and myself are going to Beckwiths after the game Sat night, it's going to be a stag party, and oh what a brawl it is going to be, win or lose.

Haven't heard from "Louie" Death for about three weeks, he's probably very much wrapped up in "Bill's" and can't find time to write.
I see where Lafayette tried Colgate last week, he will probably let me know about that.

Dean Everhardus is ~~to~~ coming home with me at Thanksgiving time, at least that is the ~~latest~~ dope. With training restrictions off we should make ourselves at home.

Joe Groszold tells me that they are dancing in the Grill at the Pantlind, sounds pretty good, about time that town woke up.

Keep the town in shape, if 2 live that long I maybe come for Thanksgiving.

As ever
