BY BELLIE T. BULLIS & MAGNUS.

AT NO. 100, BOURBON STREET.

THE INDEPENDENT AND FEDERAL PRESS.

NEW ORLEANS, WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 17, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,

A. S. A. CLAY.

OF KENTUCKY.

Subject to the decision of a National Convention.

NEW YORK CHARTER, NEW YORK.

The seat of the Globe elected at New York, who will be pleased to inform the public that the 10th and 11th instants are looked for with no little anxiety by those interested in the political interests of the present period. Not all the most eminent electors in New York have been able to give their votes, but the time is made to a small effort to be the commanding point. Those who live south of the Potomac, and who are attached to many political party spirit in every party strong, would be surprised to know how rapidly the West has been organized with regard to the election. The result of the election will be known in a few days, and the news will be received with great interest by those who are anxious to know the result of the election. The result of the election will be known in a few days, and the news will be received with great interest by those who are anxious to know the result of the election.

VETO

The veto of the bill, which was introduced in the House of Representatives, to prohibit the sale of slaves in the District of Columbia, was voted down in the Senate, in connection with that of C. G. Wood, and will have the effect of defeating the bill.

The Harriet and Louisa were built at the cost of $100,000 dollars of state funds, which comparatively small sum would have completed the work of legislation.

The bill was introduced by Mr. Clay.
