Semi-Weekly Bee, do. do. do. 5

Truth is omnipotent, and Public Justice certain.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES,
HENRY CLAY,
(Subject to the decision of the American People)

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WINFIELD SCOTT

FOR GOVERNOR,
HENRY JOHNSON,

FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS,
EDWARD D. WHITE.

NEW-ORLEANS:
TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 5, 1842.

GLORIOUS VICTORY!

Never have we risen on up our pen with such emotions of thanksgiving and joy as we now do to record the complete, thorough and overwhelming victory of the Whig party in the GLORIOUS ANNIVERSARY OF OUR NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE. Under circumstances the most discouraging, we have elected our entire legislative ticket—ONE SENATOR AND TEN REPRESENTATIVES! The Whigs of New Orleans have stopped the ball of revolution that has overwhelmed other cities and states, and now set it going afresh for HENRY CLAY! a NATIONAL CURRENCY! and a TARIFF!!

"We have met the enemy and they are ours."

Our accounts from the interior are most encouraging. We hope in a few days to give the returns of as great a triumph in the Parishes as we have achieved in the city.

New Orleans yet holds her position as the Whig City, and Louisiana, GLORIOUS LOUISIANA, will hold out the banner with a strong hand, though older states may clutch it with a feeble grasp. We annex the result —

ELECTIONS.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

The extreme pressure of the times, and the absolute dearth of all business, constrain us to issue the Bee, daily three times a week until the revival of trade in the fall. This is the first occasion, since this journal came into our hands, that we have failed to issue it every daily, even in the worst of times. We did not ask our subscribers for an indulgence that had been claimed by the press of this city in former years; but steadily adhered to daily issues at great inconvenience and no inconsiderable loss. In adopting the tri-weekly issues for one or two months we hope to meet little opposition or discontent from our readers. We do it from no willingness on our part to abate one jot the claims of our subscribers upon us. We are afflicted by the derangements of the times as other are. The press sympathises as deeply as any one in interest in the common fate that has come upon society; and we have no choice left us. It is on this account that we feel confident that our readers will bear with us for a short space in the course we have been compelled to adopt.

Our publication days will be TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY. Whenever important news arrives we will issue extras to meet the wants of our city subscribers.

DR. WRIGHT'S ASIATIC TOOTH WASH, a new important discovery for cleaning the mouth and teeth. This liquid has the singular property of destroying and removing from the teeth all tartar, from the most inveterate, without injury to the enamel, which it leaves white and smooth.

It cures the scurvy, strengthening and hardening the gums, causing them to adhere firmly to the teeth, where-by the latter are rendered firmly in their sockets, and kept free from decay.

It can be obtained at the store of Messrs. Hyde & Goodrich, 16 Chartres street. jy2
