How different in excellence and beauty the scheme of governing by national concurrence, to the satisfaction of all the good and natriotic, from that of governing by the menagement of parties and factions, whose ends are personal not national, whose meausare intrigue, deception and oppression, and whose measures finally produce discontent, estrangement, and even disgust with the constitution under which they can ac quire favor and secendency!

The Washington Telegraph, of Saturday, Jan. 18th, contains the following paragraph:

"We learn from a source which we believe to be entitled to full credit, that Mr. Harrison Gray Otis, and other federalists of Boston, addressed'a letter to Mr. Adams, demanding the evidence upon which his charge of treason, against the leading federalists of Mas-Achusetts, rested. It is also said, that quested this letter to be withdrawn-Mr Everett's request remaining unanswered, it is now said, that Mr. Adams has written and forwarded a long letter establishing his charge."

Tr is stated in the New-York papers that two hundred and twenty-eight persons were confined for debt, in that city. without any allowance for fuel, clothing or food. Nevertheless, provision must be made for the Greeks.

Louis Bonaparte, in his reply to the History of Bir Walter Scott, is said to treat the illustrious knight with much severity. He observes-

"I imagined that so distinguished a man as the author [Sir Walter,] fatigued with the vain renown of a romance writer, sought to attain that of a true historian; but, to my great astonishment, I perceived, on reading his book, that, after having turned into romance some part of the history of his Dress Coats, Pantaloons, and Vests: country, he was desirous of converting Drab and Camblet Greats Coats, Surinto history the romances and libels which have been fabricated for the last thirty years against France and Naft. lcon."

[From the New-York American. Jan. 23.] We have received two or three ver sions of the French inscription for a grambling house, published in Tuesday's paper, but they lack the terseness and point of the original-which indeed it is very difficult to t nder. In the National Gazette of Philadelbhia we find one, which is better than any we have seen. It is thus:

Inscription for a Gaming House. Three ample deors this manaion hath. Their names -kape, infamy, and death ; The first alone for entrance made, The others are for those while played.
