THE DAILY BEE,
PUBLISHED BY
G. F. WEISSE & CO.,
OFFICE AND PROPRIETORS.
C. F. WEISSE, S. HARBY,
N. DIVERGES, N. DUPUIS.

The Daily Bee.

NEW ORLEANS, MONDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 24, 1855.

OFFICE, 83 CHARTRES ST.

VOL. XVI—NEW SERIES. VOL. XXIX—WHOLE NO. 8027.

PAYABLE (one year in advance) $12 00
DAILY PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance) 5 00
Semi-weekly, subscribers must give one week's notice of leaving before they can be allowed to discontinue.

One Dollar for every TEN lines, in each language for the first insertion, and HALF that price for each subsequent insertion. Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each language.

☞ Advertisements not inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each insertion for each language.

☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to advertisements strictly within the line of their business, and in extent to one square every other day.

THE DAILY BEE.

MONDAY MORNING, DEC. 24, 1855.

Subscriptions by the Week.

Carriers of the Bee are authorized to receive subscriptions by the week, at the rate of 12½ cents.

CONGRESS MAIL came through yesterday. Latest dates.

THE REAL ISSUE

The question has been manifested at the North which National Whigs and Democrats continue steadily to cast their votes in favor of Banks for Speaker of the House of Representatives. This perseverance on the part of the North, but is regarded by the South, but is justified by the true men from the North, such as Mr. Washburn, Horace and others. Some of the latter were in favor of Mr. Kansas-Nebraska bill on the ground that it was the upon which Col. Hunt could put the bill having become a party question having been acquired were unwilling to create a new sectional dissension by settling the affairs of the Missouri Compromise—nevertheless, with the friends of the measure in regarding the repeal the promise as an act of bad faith, it is strange that they should decided in elevating either of them to the Chair. The real motive of their action to be deduced from the developments made public in a letter of Joshua R. Giddings, the Abolition in the House of Representatives, to the Ashtabula (O.) Sentinel. In this letter Mr. Giddings that at the various held on the Saturday first meeting of Congress, the resolution was unanimously adopted.

That we will support no man for who had pledged to carry out the by giving to each provision ordered by the House to be a majority of such special committee to organize the standing committees of the House by placing on such a majority of such committees as were favorable to the reports on all petitions committed to them.

Every member who attended that caucus signed the resolution, is pledged to support it, and knows clearly that the Speaker will support no one for the committees who will not arrange the committees in accordance with the foregoing resolution as to favor Abolition petitions in form. Thus, for example, no one on Ways and Means must be in favor against all appropriations for the defence or benefit of the Army. The Committee on Elections in favor of giving the seat of Mr. Kansas to Reeder, instead of the Committee on the District are to report a bill to abolish slavery in the District. The Committee on Territories are to establish the Wilmot Proviso. In short, every committee will be a majority of anti-slavery men, and report against the Constitution, and next, Mr. Giddings pledges, and each member individually adhered to by the Speaker.

This is a subject of wonder that all parties even from the South do not profess some little regard for the Constitution, and some slight respect for their own sections, and a few days ago, Buchanan men, and Fillmore men, and Whigs, and Democrats, and Americans, and Know-Nothings, and Anti-Know-Nothings, and Anti-Slavery men, and Pro-Slavery men, and Anti-Slavery men, and Pro-Slavery men, and Anti-Slavery men, and Pro-Slavery men