THE DAILY BEE,
PUBLISHED BY
G. F. WEISSE & CO.
EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.
G. F. WEISSE, S. HARBY,
S. DUPUGNIER, N. DUFOUR.
DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance).....$12
DOUBTFUL PAPER, semi-weekly, (one year in advance).....
In all cases, subscribers must give one week's notice in writing before they can be allowed to discontinue.

The New Orleans Bee.

RATES OF ADVERTISING
One Dollar for every TEN lines in each and every one of the first ten, and FIVE lines in each and every one of the remainder, for each insertion.
[illegible]
☞ The proprietors of Annual Advertisements will be entitled to advertisements strictly within the limits of their contracts, and in extent to one square every other day.

NEW ORLEANS, THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 12, 1855

Vol. XV....NEW SERIES.
Vol. XVIII....Whole No. 7190

THE DAILY BEE.

Thursday Morning, July 12th, 1855.

The Beginning.

The Anti-American journals are as ferocious and persistent in their assaults upon the American candidates and platform, as if the election was four weeks, instead of four months distant. We are afraid our friends of the Old Line Democrats are acting like the Allies before Sebastopol—wasting their ammunition in a fruitless and premature bombardment. We advise them to husband their resources, else they may lack arguments ere the canvass closes.

The attacks on Mr. DERBIGNY which have already appeared are certainly of a nature to advance his claims. We hope they will be continued; the more virulent they are, the better for his cause. Mr. DERBIGNY has been sneered at as an obscure man. This is rich. CHARLES DERBIGNY an obscure man! The Speaker of the House of Representatives for two years, a member of the State Senate for several years, the Native American candidate for Governor in 1845, a gentleman of education, ripe attainments, genuine worth, the very antipodes of a political demagogue and office-hunter. To call such a man obscure is a decided ne plus ultra of absurdum. Our Locofoco friends had better try another track. Defamation for some imaginary and fabulous offense, calumniate him after the style in which HENRY CLAY and WINFIELD SCOTT were libelled. This might do for some nervous people might be frightened especially if the slander is quick to do. But don't strive to persuade people that Mr DERBIGNY is unknown and obscure, because such declarations provoke laughter.

Obscurity experience is nearly certain to make Mr DERBIGNY is a Frenchman and a Catholic. Marvellous discovery! Astounding revelation! We are afraid that such discovery will make him out an Irishman, or the son of a clan, and thus compel him to punish his certificate of baptism, or produce his nativity in these United States. We expect very shortly to hear it proclaimed that Mr. DERBIGNY is a Protestant; that he hates Catholicism; that he is an Abolitionist and has liberated his slaves; and that he passed in the North the act for the protection of his existence subsequent to his emigration from Tipperary to Louisiana. Mr. DERBIGNY! Your Anne Boleyn has already been questioned by the truculent and remorseless Locofocos.

If you can contrive to reach the Governorship, without being charged with murder or treason, you will have reason to congratulate yourself on the forbearance of your enemies.

As for our candidates, so with the Platform of the American Party in Louisiana and elsewhere. Locofocoism is shuffling hypocrites. In the N. Orleans Bulletin that test—Locofocoism of 76 denounces intolerant bigots. There is no way of pleasing those testy and irascible gentlemen. The American Convention has divided the fact, for, it has no principles, without the regard for the lamentations and groans of the Anti-American party, whether the platform abolishes the Pope, or the spoilsmen would not care a fig. But in sober earnest, the present need for getting into steam. The American Party will be exceeded until the elections are over. They have no idea of a comfortable voyage in fair weather, of waxing strong in time enough for such exigencies as those of three months hence. If they have any common sense, they will act upon the sensible example of Mr. MARCY. If they do not, we shall be grievously disappointed.

The American Party had an immense rally at Louisville on the evening of the 4th. So large was the crowd that several thousand were crowded from the house. Ex-Governor MORTON was the orator. He spoke two hours, and was frequently interrupted by cheers. The Louisville Journal says that the Anti-Know Nothings have been sorely rebuked. Too the mark like men.

HART'S Self Sharpening Cans.—We have given a description of this very good improved method of preserving fruits and vegetables, and are satisfied that it will prove a great blessing to families by the discovery. One of the most delicate of treasures—huckleberry—was put up in a self sealing can which was opened at the expiration of seven weeks. The fruit was found perfectly free from the natural flavor and taste, and was as much relish. It gives the appearance of having been put up but a few days. Our experience in the use of the invention has been highly satisfactory, as we have found it. Enquire at Exhibition Building.

☞ The Cincinnati Colombian says, that a specimen of that city, a few days since, found a diamond on the bank of the Ohio river a very short distance below the city, which is valued at $1,000 by the discoverer