NOTICE.—The public is informed that the partnership hereinafter existing between Ed. L'hotte and A. Ma-rinay is dissolved by mutual consent, on the 10th of June 1835.

Ed. L'hotte is alone empowered to settle the accounts of the partnership.

He improves this opportunity to inform the public that he has recently opened in Bay St. Louis, opposite the wharf, an establishment known by the appellation of Belair Hotel.

The advantageous situation of this hotel, its proximity to the landing place too well known to require further explanation.

M. Marinay is highly appreciated by the great世家 always took of her borders, and by the attention she paid to her visitors in all the public houses she superintended as lately the Marine Hotel in New Orleans, will take charge of the interior department of the establishment.

M. L'hotte will endeavor to give satisfaction to persons visiting his hotel, when he pleased, and they will find comfort, cleanliness, good food, etc.

He has engaged a French cook, cheffant and permanent housekeeper, Table d'Hôte with wine at every meal.

Ed. L'hotte.

MANDEVILLE

HOTEL

The undersigned informs his friends and the public that on the 1st of August, he will be ready to receive in his hotel all persons who may favor him with their visits, and receive boarders. To persons acquainted with the superior situation of the establishment, a description of it is superfluous, but the subscriber thinks proper to point out to the public its many advantages.

Mandeville is situated about 20 miles distance from New Orleans on the borders of Lake Pontchartrain. The ground is elevated about 12 or 15 feet above high water mark, and the party of ice extends all contiguous coast, affording abundant fishing and plenty of game.

All provisions, wines, liquors &c. of the 1st quality, and no trouble will be spared to afford comfort and pleasure to visitors. To that and the subterfuges provided boats, pirogues, fishing seine, horses, and a place for pistol shooting. Fishing may be accommodated with private apartments. Two steam boats will make up the trip in 3-4 hours, will keep up a constant communication station, so necessary in the heat of summer has been provided. A large wharf makes the landing easy and secure.

For the time of starting of the boats, see the advertisement of the steamboat Delta.

JOHN DAVIS.

MARIGNY HOTEL.
Corner of Vieux street and the Pontchartrain Rail-Rod: THE subscriber respectfully invites to this establishment, which is furnished in a new and splendid style, unparallelled in the country.

No pains or expense have been spared, and the utmost care will be used by all employed in the house to afford as much convenience and comfort to the guests, as any private family possibly can.

Passengers and lodgers will be accommodated in the most convenient style, and the rooms are delightfully pleasant.

There is a nobly furnished saloon expressly for the accommodation of ladies on the second floor, connected with which are apartments where Ice-Cream, Soda Water and Candyfloss are served to ladies and Gentlemen every evening.

This will be found very convenient for Ladies and Gentlemen, on the Rail-Rod, who are too late for dinner, as a pleasant place to sit in, will be some compensation for the disappointment, and add to some of the leisure on this hotel will make the delay a pleasure—and for those who indulge in an evening promenade, this will be a most desirable resort.

This splendid establishment has been fitted up with great expense, and the proprietor has only been induced to incur that responsibility, from the knowledge of the fact that the houses of New Orleans are now, none, or earth founded of rewarding landed exertions.
