The course of studies comprises a sicaultaneous teaching of the French and English languages and iterature, writing, drawing, arithmetic, geography, chronology, history, and the different sorts of needle work, lace making, tapestry and finey work. Beds are found by the establishment, for which the pupils have to pay $5. Each papil is to bring 2 pair of shoots, I woollen branket, I white quilt, 12 towels, a silver spoon, fork and goblet, a dessert knife, and a sufficient suit of clothes and linen. School books and writing books are paid for separately. Payments to be made every three months, and in advance, either in cash or in negotiable bills. No deduction for absence. The children are treated with that mildness, so becoming towards the female portion of society, and as Ma-drame Granet carefully avoids striking their young minds with real or imaginary terrors, so she has made a rule never to inflict the least bodily punishment. The increasing success of the establishment and the remarkable progress which the pupils have already made, render it useless to enter in-to further particulars.
