* An Administrative Review Board's conclusion and Designated Civilian Official (DCO) decision, annotated on a DCO Action Memo, constitute a completed ARB proceeding.

The Deputy Secretary of Defense, who also serves as the DCO, has the authority to make these decisions based on new information received since the prior ARB. During ARB-4, the Deputy Secretary of Defense authorized the transfer of 24 detainees before their respective ARB-4 proceedings were complete.

One detainee was charged by the Office of Military Commissions, thus making the detainee ARB ineligible.
