Preval, associate judge, I shall expose for sale, on Wednesday the 27th inst. at 4 o'clock, at the Exchange Coffee-House, the Home and Lot in which the Defendant now lives, situated in the suburb Delor, Circular Square, above the corner of St. Charles and Delor streets, with all and singular the improvements thereon, seized in the above suit for the City Taxes.

THURSDAY, MARCH 26, 1829.

The unfavorable state of the weather having prevented Mr. Rand from exhibiting his Microscope, for the benefit of the male Orphan Asylum of this city, he has fixed upon this day for the purpose of carrying into effect the very humane intention which we noticed in our paper of Monday last.

Summary Made of Proceeding.—We understand that a novel and somewhat unpleasant occurrence took place at the Park Theatre, on Saturday evening.

We have been creditably informed that the person above alluded to, was a gentleman of high respectability in the commercial community of New-York.

Opinions Imparted to General Jackson.

The National Journal copies from an Alabama paper, the following extract of a letter from a fellow traveller with General Jackson, in the steam-boat up the Ohio, on his way to Washington.

If the sentiments of Gen. Jackson are correctly stated in the foregoing paragraph, it appears he will recommend a repeal of the Tariff, to quiet the excitement of the South, and preserve the union of the States.

WASHINGTON March 2

In the Senate, on Saturday, Mr. McKingley presented a Protest from the Legislature of Alabama against the Tariff. Six thousand copies of the map representing the country through which the proposed canal across the Peninsula of Florida, connecting the Atlantic with the Gulf of Mexico, were ordered to be published.
