GRAND CONCERT FOR THE BENEFIT OF THE POOR.—We are pleased to note that preparations are being made for the production of one of those musical solemnities which in times gone were of ordinary occurrence in our city—with this difference: that the music in this instance is one of charity and benevolence, and not a private enterprise. A number of ladies and gentlemen of our city, mindful of the wants of a large portion of our community, have undertaken to organize a concert for the benefit of the poor. To bring this landance to a successful issue, it became necessary to secure the services of singing and musical amateurs who would contribute their talent to give the occasion the importance it deserves. This, fortunately, was not a difficult task, as our city is so rich in the possession of good voices and fine musical taste, as it is in the better sentiments of generosity which characterize true charity. The concert will be given at the Opera House, and from what we hear, the house promises to be crowded, as many of the boxes have already been secured. The concert, at greater length on a future occasion.

THE VARIETIES THEATRE.—An audience of respectable numbers was assembled at the Varieties last night to witness the second representation of "Lucifer." We have already spoken of the acting of Mr. Gladstone as Porthos, and Mr. Ryer as Aramis, and, in this night's performance, we have nothing to add but to offer our profoundest compliment to Mr. Baker's Poldy. He was a fine rendering throughout, and he personified the character of the avenging man with great effect. In the afterpiece, "The Poldy of the Petticoats," Mr. Baker assumed the character of Poldy with much success that attested her characterization of this nature.

To-night will be given the comedy entitled "Love, Year." The performance will conclude with "Jessie Brown" or, The Siege of Lucknow.

THEATRE DE L'OPERA.—The performance which is to come off at the opera house on Thursday, the 12th inst., for the benefit of Miss De Latourneire promises to be a most brilliant musical festivity. The programme is well selected, and is composed of grand operas, comic operas, and vaudeville, "The Dragons of Love," the fourth act of "La Favorite," and the comedies "Un Vain Monstre." We will refer to this performance and its like.

THE N. O. DELTA.—The Evening Delta has been suspended by order of Major-General Banks until further orders. At a later hour in the evening, however, the Delta made its appearance with the accompanying notice at the head of its columns:

Notice.—The publication of this paper, from this date, and until other arrangements can be made, will be continued by the workmen employed upon the Delta. The former editor connection has ceased.

HIGHWAY GREEN, Foreman.

BANK OF LOUISIANA.—By reference to the notice of the cashier of this institution, August 20, 1862, it will be seen that the ordinary business of the bank will be transacted at the counters of the Louisiana State Bank, and further notice. A meeting of the Directors will be held at the residence of President Newton Mercer, Esq., at 10 o'clock this morning.

R. T. Montgomery's sales for this day, Tuesday the 10th instant, will be made at the towing house and places. At 11 o'clock, at the Jewell warehouse, 200 barrels choice potatoe, 12 o'clock, at the cotton warehouse, 200 Creek steamers, very large sets of slabs, and clear rolled sides, tobacco, copper, coal, and a variety of fresh groceries, as per advertisements. At 11 o'clock, at old auction mart, 87 Camp street, the usual sale of furniture, carpets, &c.

Advertisers in India bagging will find it to their interest to attend the sale which takes place this day, at 11 o'clock, in the Boudin Warehouse, No. 3, corner of New Levee and Chartres streets, by D. E. Murphy, auctioneer.

The large sale of corn and oats takes place this day. See D. E. Murphy's auction advertisement.
