GALT HOUSE.

Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE location of this house being central, built way between the river and canal, and up in the highest level upon Main street, and commanding a view of both rivers together with the late addition and improvements makes it now the most desirable hotel in the city for merchants and travellers generally, and for those who may visit the city—bills moderate, suitable to the times. Trusting grateful for past favors, I hope by at set attention to the comfort of all who may call to merit a continuance of public favor so liberally bestowed.

N. B.—A brick stable is attached to the house and good hostlers in attendance.

Baggage taken to and from the river and canal free of charge when called for. WM E MORSE

GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVES CALLED "QUEEN OF THE WEST."

THE undersigned, agent for the sale of this article for the first time introduced to the notice of the New Orleans public, begs leave respectfully to solicit public attention to them.

He refers to the subjoined flattering testimony as to its economy, neatness and general utility.

We, the subscribers, have used for some time Guild's Patent Cooking Stove, called the Queen of the West, 1 of no hesitation in giving our unqualified testimony in its favor. For neatness, convenience, economy, &c. &c. in the northern we think it surpasses any other cooking apparatus that we have seen in use. It seems to have applied one great desideratum not heretofore attained in an article of the kind, viz. that the same fire answers for baking, roasting, and boiling, and heating smoothing irons at the same time, and that by the contrivance of the flues and the different sizes manufactured seem capable of supplying the wants of all, from the smallest family to the largest hotels and steamboats.
