COUGH REMEDY.—Pectoral Paste of Bogenstab, 9 rue Gist at Paris.—Of all the remedies now known for the cure of coughs none has ever obtained so much celebrity as the Pectoral Paste of Bogenstab, as each bottle contained by its usage in the affections of the lungs and consumption, have rendered it invaluable.

This paste has the power of calming irritations of the lungs immediately, facilitates the expectoration, and stops the cough. It is one of the best remedies in colds, catarrhs, &c., which yield immediately to its effects. Physicians of the best standing in Paris have tested its effects in many cases, and have recommended its use in all lung affections, and as the cure of consumption is the least to be known.

The above remedy can be obtained at M. Martin's, Drug gist, No. 171, Chartres st.

CARROLLTON ACADEMY.—The subscribers have the honour of announcing to the citizens of Carrollton in particular, and to the inhabitants of New Orleans in general, that the above institution will be opened, under their superintendence, for the reception of boys, both as boarding and day scholars. They pledge themselves that the most assiduous attention shall be devoted to their moral and intellectual improvement.

The local advantages of Carrollton are well known. They have secured the spacious house now occupied by Mr. Ashe, and which, for healthiness of situation, and for the accommodation every respect admirably adapted for the objects they have in view.

As the institution will be strictly proprietary, they propose limiting the age of pupils to twelve years. The advantages of this arrangement, parents will at once appreciate.

Preparations will be made for receiving a few boarding girls, both as boarders and day scholars. The character of this establishment, in this respect, will be under the immediate superintendence of Mrs. Lynden Ryder.

Terms and other particulars may be had on application at the Academy, which is situated on the corner of Carondelet and Union streets.

GUILD'S PATENT COOKING STOVES CALLED "QUEEN OF THE WEST"

THE undersigned, agent for the sale of this article, for the Southern market, would respectfully call the attention of the New Orleans public, begs leave respectfully to solicit public attention thereto.

He refers to the subjoined flattering testimony as to its economy, neatness and general utility:

We, the subscribers, having used for some time Guild's Patent Cooking Stove, called the Queen of the West, find no hesitation in giving our unqualified testimony in its favor. For neatness, convenience, economy and general usefulness, we think it surpasses any other cooking apparatus we have ever seen in use. It is also supplied with one great desideratum not heretofore attained—an open capacious oven, and at the same time sealed until only ready for baking, which is effected by a valve in the flue, which brings the heat immediately in contact with the boilers so that it performs all the different offices of cooking, viz. baking, roasting, and heating something else at the same time, and with the least possible quantity of fuel; and the different sizes manufactured are especially adapted to suit the want of all, from the smallest family to the largest of hotels and steamboats
