"My love to John."

To his son Thomas he writes from Philadelphia, under date of August 6th, 1840:

"My relations with Mr. Fillmore are perfectly friendly and confidential. In the appointment of Mr. Crittenden I acquisescet, Mr. F. asked me how we stood? I told him that the same degree of intimacy between us which once existed no longer prevailed, but that we were on terms of civility. I added that if he thought of introducing him into the Cabinet I hought of introducing him into the Cabinet I hought of introducing him into the Cabinet I hought of introducing him into finy relations to him would form any obstacle."
