

Who is Escudra?

Well, I am 52 years old, male, mixed race among Jewish, Andean's Indian, Spanish, German and Russian. No that tall and not that over wait. I like my eyes.

Way Escudra?

As a result of an error, I have Dyslexia and in 1995 I was trying to create an e-mail account, and I was trying to use escuadra@hotmail.com but I mistyped the name, and it becomes Escudra.

Way Escuadra?

In 1984 I became a freemason, and one on the symbols that impress me the most was the "Escuadra" square ruler in an angle of 45 degrees.

How are you?

Well, I am a wonderful human bean, I learned that after many years of stragging with my self, I use to say "I'm just a human bean, and I have the right to make mistakes", and that was very harmful for my weak self esteem; that was an excuse to my miseris. Then I realize what my problem was. Du to circumstances out of my control, like my dyslexia and my depression, and more, I use to have a terrible concept about my self, I use to consider my self a mentally challenged people, (I use to call my self stupid idiot, I will not say it to avoid confusion because know I think that Dyslexia and depression treated properly has been a blessing for me). I was saying that I use to hate my self and my conditions, for one or other reason everything has been hard for me to achieve, there is a lot of challenges that have carved my personality to the point that I love and respect my self.
