

HISTORICAL POINTS

WESTERN MARYLAND

"McCulloch's Path." The first trail through the Glades. George Washington stopped here, September 26, 1776.

"Charles Francis' Home." George Washington stopped here on September 26, 1776, looking for the best route from the Potomac to the Ohio River.

"Bear Camp." General Braddock's 6th Camp on the march to Fort DuRoi, June 20-21, 1755.

Where George Washington was taken sick and remained for a few days until he could travel with his baggage.

"The Little Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

SOUTHERN MARYLAND

Annapolis, Capital of Maryland and site of the U. S. Naval Academy, St. James College and numerous points of historical interest. For additional information apply at Hotels and Chamber of Commerce.

(a) The site of the Declaration of Independence. (b) The site of the first meeting of the Continental Congress. (c) George Washington's Headquarters. (d) The site of the first meeting of the Continental Congress. (e) The site of the first meeting of the Continental Congress.

"Washington's Road." Washington's troops first opened their march from Cumberland to Hagerstown (Bedford, Pa.) in July, 1776.

Where James Frasier was captured by the Indians in 1754. Original house still standing.

Old Forting Place across the Potomac of the Warriors Path, and site of the Stockade Fort of Col. Thomas Cresap. Washington stopped here many times.

"The Warriors Path." Way path of the free rangers of Indians of New York State to the Carolina Mountains.

"Old Mt. Pleasant House." Visited by Washington in 1760, while visiting at Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

NORTH CENTRAL MARYLAND

Site of Home of Governor Augustus W. Bradford which was burned by Confederate troops on July 11, 1864.

"Garrison Farm Church." Built for the Free inhabitants of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, 1742.

Old Court Road. The original road leading to the Court at Joppa, Tenn. The Old United States Arsenal. Built in 1816 after the close of the War of 1812.

"The Garrison Fort." Built in 1693 as a protection against hostile Indians.

"The Eagle's Nest." Part of "The Valley of Jehoshaphat" and located as British owned property and reallocated in 1781.

"Quinn" or "Sweet Air." Patented 1704. Long associated with the Carroll family. House built about 1792.

The Baltimore and Yorktown Turnpike Road. Authorized 1805, to rebuild the road laid out by the State in 1767.

40th Milestone on the Mason and Dixon Line, surveyed and marked 1753.

"Black Horse Tavern." Where Washington spent the night on his way back from New York in 1777.

St. James Church, My Lady's Manor. Started 1795, no market.

Lyonsville, 4000 acres surveyed 1765 for Charles Carroll, Lord Baltimore's Attorney-General. In 1822, his great-grandfather Harry Carroll built the house.

"My Lady's Manor." 10,000 acres owned by Lady Baltimore of Baltimore, Ber Ar. County east of Harford County since 1763. See portraits and murals in Court House and Post Office.

"Harry Gilmer's Road." A serious Confederate invasion of Maryland.

"Jerusalem Mills." Established in 1772 by David Lee, a Quaker from Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

EASTERN SHORE

"The Proprietor of the Susquehanna Canal" was one of the first canals in America, 1783.

"Susquehannock Indian Fort" (site of an important point in the controversy between Penn and Lord Baltimore).

"Smith's Falls." In 1608 Captain John Smith anchored the Susquehanna 1040-658.

"Cunningham Tavern." Where Rochembeau's heavy artillery camped during 1040-658.

"Dove to this spot."

"Richards' Oak." Lafayette's troops camped under this tree in 1781.

"Whitman Tavern." Established 1744, by Dr. Samuel Finley, who in 1781 became the President of Princeton.

"Whitman Tavern." Established 1744, by Dr. Samuel Finley, who in 1781 became the President of Princeton.

"Whitman Tavern." Established 1744, by Dr. Samuel Finley, who in 1781 became the President of Princeton.

"Whitman Tavern." Established 1744, by Dr. Samuel Finley, who in 1781 became the President of Princeton.

"The Lubian Trail." 3,750 acres occupied 1684 by a Religious Sect who led a communal form of life.

"Harford Town" or "Bluff." The first Declaration of Independence was signed here March 27, 1775.

Rochembeau's troops camped here in 1782 on their way back from the 1035-612 victory of Yorktown.

Rochembeau's troops camped here in 1782 on their way back from the 1035-612 victory of Yorktown.

Sesquia Island (Litt's Hope), 2,000 acres surveyed 1681. The only Manor 1061-992 in Harford County. Treaty with the Susquehannock Indians made here in 1669.

Rochembeau's Camp near the Havre de Grace Race Track. Here in 1781 1054-624 the troops camped on their way to Yorktown.

Havre de Grace. Originally called Susquehanna Lower Ferry. Washington 1006-626 here in 1781.

John O'Mear's memorial and gun used in the defense of Havre de Grace 1006-626 1814 in Civil War.

"Tutor Hall." Birthplace of Edwin Booth and John Wilkes Booth. 1002-433.

"Medical Hall." The home of Dr. John Archer, the first graduate of medical school in America.

Churchville. Rochembeau's heavy artillery here September, 1781, on way to Yorktown.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

"The Middle Crossing" of the Youghiogheny River (now called Castleman's Tavern). Old stone arch bridge built in 1812. It is one of 80 stone arches the longest built up to that time.

STATE FORESTS AND STATE PARKS IN MARYLAND

The state parks of Maryland were selected for their scenic or historic values and for their recreational possibilities. The state forests were established to preserve the natural resources of the state and to provide a source of timber for the state.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL

The Appalachian Trail, the longest trail in the world, is a continuous path from the mountains of New Hampshire to the seacoast of Georgia. It is a unique and scenic route that passes through some of the most beautiful scenery in the United States.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

A WORD ABOUT MARYLAND

Maryland is a beautiful state with a rich history and scenic beauty. It is a state of many contrasts, from the rolling hills of the Western Shore to the urban centers of the Eastern Shore and the Chesapeake Bay region.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

EXTENSION SERVICE, UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

PLEASANT VALLEY RECREATION AREA, 1944 acres, central Garrett County, 10 miles south of Grantsville on State 495. Elevation 2,000 feet. The park offers a wide variety of recreational opportunities, including fishing, hunting, and swimming. There are group camps accommodated for 150 persons. Tables and a large combination toilet and dining hall, as well as other facilities for swimming and fishing. If you are interested in extending your stay, apply to Extension Service, University of Maryland, College Park, Md.

NATIONAL PARK SERVICE AREAS IN MARYLAND

The National Park Service of the United States Department of the Interior administers several areas in Maryland, including:

- ANTETAN NATIONAL BATTLEFIELD SITE commemorates the Civil War battle of Antietam, which was a turning point in the war.
- CHESAPEAKE AND OHIO CANAL is a historic waterway that was built in the early 19th century.
- POINT LOOKOUT LIGHTHOUSE is a historic lighthouse built in 1824.
- STAR SPANGLED BANNER NATIONAL HISTORIC SITE commemorates the birthplace of the United States flag.

Maryland's Chesapeake Bay Bridge, longest over water steel bridge in the world.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL

The Appalachian Trail, the longest trail in the world, is a continuous path from the mountains of New Hampshire to the seacoast of Georgia. It is a unique and scenic route that passes through some of the most beautiful scenery in the United States.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

A WORD ABOUT MARYLAND

Maryland is a beautiful state with a rich history and scenic beauty. It is a state of many contrasts, from the rolling hills of the Western Shore to the urban centers of the Eastern Shore and the Chesapeake Bay region.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

OCEAN CITY, MARYLAND

Ocean City, Maryland, is a beautiful coastal town known for its beaches and scenic views. It is a popular destination for tourists and offers a wide variety of recreational activities, including fishing, swimming, and sunbathing.

Over four hundred marlin were caught off Ocean City, Maryland in 1952.

Ocean City, Maryland, is a beautiful coastal town known for its beaches and scenic views. It is a popular destination for tourists and offers a wide variety of recreational activities, including fishing, swimming, and sunbathing.

Over four hundred marlin were caught off Ocean City, Maryland in 1952.

THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL

The Appalachian Trail, the longest trail in the world, is a continuous path from the mountains of New Hampshire to the seacoast of Georgia. It is a unique and scenic route that passes through some of the most beautiful scenery in the United States.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

A WORD ABOUT MARYLAND

Maryland is a beautiful state with a rich history and scenic beauty. It is a state of many contrasts, from the rolling hills of the Western Shore to the urban centers of the Eastern Shore and the Chesapeake Bay region.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

OCEAN CITY, MARYLAND

Ocean City, Maryland, is a beautiful coastal town known for its beaches and scenic views. It is a popular destination for tourists and offers a wide variety of recreational activities, including fishing, swimming, and sunbathing.

Over four hundred marlin were caught off Ocean City, Maryland in 1952.

Ocean City, Maryland, is a beautiful coastal town known for its beaches and scenic views. It is a popular destination for tourists and offers a wide variety of recreational activities, including fishing, swimming, and sunbathing.

Over four hundred marlin were caught off Ocean City, Maryland in 1952.

THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL

The Appalachian Trail, the longest trail in the world, is a continuous path from the mountains of New Hampshire to the seacoast of Georgia. It is a unique and scenic route that passes through some of the most beautiful scenery in the United States.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

A WORD ABOUT MARYLAND

Maryland is a beautiful state with a rich history and scenic beauty. It is a state of many contrasts, from the rolling hills of the Western Shore to the urban centers of the Eastern Shore and the Chesapeake Bay region.

Point Lookout Lighthouse, at the extreme tip of Southern Maryland.

The Maryland Hunt Cup Race is the oldest in the Nation.

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

GOVERNOR

THEODORE R. MCKELDIN

Beautiful Middleton Valley, from Gambrill State Park near Frederick, Maryland.

Flag House, Baltimore, where Mary Pickersgill made the flag which inspired Francis Scott Key to write "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER".

