The Deniel Weater did not bring a mail, but we are indebted to her officers for San Francisco papers as late as the 5th instant. They do not contain many items of interest.

A disastrous explosion occurred on the 2d inst. in the immense distillery works of Bartott & Hirshield—gentlemen formerly of this city, where they were well known as the preprinters of the large clothing establishment No. 3 Magazine street. The San FranciscoHerad of the 3d furnishes the following details the sitched still, of the capacity of about four thousand gallons, was leaking, when the principal cooper of the establishment, Mr. Carroll, and the stablishment, Mr. Carroll, procured pumps to pump out the vat. Towards the middle of the day the leak in creased in volume, when Mr. John Boyle, also a cooper, went to his sensatance, each pump ing two minutes alternately.

Whits Mr. Carroll was at work on the pump, at about 12 o'clock, the still exploded, and the whole building was immediately in fames. It is supposed that there was a light under the still, which was being used is order to examine the leak, &c., and that, courses a with the spirite, caused the explassion. The feet and weighing 150 pounds, was killed.
