G. F. WEISS, Proprietor,
NO. 83 CHARTRES STREET.

Terms of the Bee.

DAILY PAPER, (one year in advance) $12 00
COUNTRY PAPER, semi weekly, (one year in advance,) 5 00

In all cases the subscriber must give the week's notice, in writing, before he can be allowed to discontinue.

The New Orleans Bee.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

One Dollar for every TEN lines, in each language on the first insertion, and HALF that price for each subsequent one. No Advertisement inserted for less than one dollar in each language.

☞ Advertisements inserted at intervals will be charged one dollar for every TEN lines for each language for each insertion.

☞ The privilege of Annual Advertisers is limited to advertisements strictly with the line of their business, and in extent to one square every other day.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE STATE. ..... NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1852. | No. 1749, Vol. 10.—NEW SERIES. Vol. XXI.—Whole No. 6795.

THE DAILY BEE.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE, GENERAL COUNCIL AND FIRST MUNICIPALITY COUNCIL.

Saturday Morning, March 27, 1852.

FOR PRESIDENT:
MILLARD FILLMORE.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:
JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

Subject to the nomination of the Whig National Convention.

The Northern Mail failed partially yesterday, in consequence of the snow storms in Virginia. We are to the Washington letter of the 20th, and from Charleston to the 22nd inst.

GENERAL SCOTT has formally states that the Whig State Convention of Maryland will probably send delegates to the Baltimore Convention, instructed to vote for the nomination of General Scott. Maryland is a southern State, and the action of both parties will have a great influence throughout the recent contest in the Presidential election, manifested the warmest attachment to the Compromise measures. That the Whig party of Maryland should advocate the nomination of General Scott, proves either the correctness of the popularity of that distinguished Captain, or a settled conviction of the soundness of a sound and true Compromise. The opposition derives some countenance for a statement in the Washington correspondence of a Baltimore paper, to the effect that General Scott, acting under the advisement of his southern friends, was about to put forth an explanatory of his views respecting slavery, in which statement it would be sufficient to satisfy the South. The letter may be considered as a confirmation of the forbearance on the part of the Whig party, which have been exercised in the Whig Convention, and which, if successful, will be the means of bringing together the whole Whig party, and of securing the thirty six votes of New York in the General Scott in the National Convention. With New York to back him and the Pennsylvania and Ohio, we begin to learn General Scott may be the man after all. The Abolitionists in framing her constitution, and denied the charge of Mr. Davis that he had spoken of the fanaticism of the South. He had used no such language in the Nicholson letter.

Mr. Gwin gave notice that on Monday he should call up the bill for establishing a Navy Yard at San Francisco. He wished to leave Washington on Tuesday, and trusted that Senators would give way to enable him to carry his intention into effect.

The private calendar was then taken up.

The bills were called on to be engrossed, for the relief of Gerard Thomas Howard, Wm. C. Dodson, St. John's Church, Washington, and Bryan Callaghan.

The Senate then went into executive session, and after remaining some time, adjourned until Monday.

In the House, Mr. Seymour, of Conn., moved that the House go into committee of the Whole on the private calendar.

Mr. Houston said he was willing, if the House would so consent, to adjourn to-morrow and Monday to the Deficiency bill.

Messrs. Brooks and Stanly wished to take up the Deficiency bill.

No quorum voted upon the motion to go into committee, when Mr. Jones moved a call of the House, on which motion the yeas and nays were taken, and it was lost—yeas 64, nays 95.

Mr. Cabell of Florida, then moved that the House go into Committee on the Deficiency bill.

The Speaker said that Mr. Seymour's motion had the precedence, and the question being taken upon it, it was carried by tellers—yeas 70, nays 67.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, and the private calendar was taken up.

The consideration of the bill for the relief of certain citizens of Florida, who have been damaged by the Seminole war, was then postponed, and the House proceeded to the consideration of the bill for the relief of the heirs of Gen. Thomas Posey, deceased.

Mr. Bayly, of Va., moved to lay the bill on the table, which motion was carried—yeas 91, nays 87.

The bill for the relief of Mrs. Harris was then taken up, and passed.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole, and took up the bill for the relief of Mrs. Ann Hall, which was