In consequence of opening this institution, Dr. M. has discontinued his old estalilishment in Massachusetts; consequently his whole attention is now paid to this. In this Infirmary, (which is entirely seperate from the Ineane Hospital,) the following patients are re-ceived, viz: those that are laboring under chronic, nervous or cachectio diseases, males or females of intemperate habits, such as are unmanageable by parents or guardians; for patients of the latter description who have neglected their education, a private instructor is provided. Dr. II. is happy to state, from the success he has met with, (both in his oldestablishment and this) in restoring to health and reason patients of the above descriptions, he is induced to believe that patients are restored in much less time and in a greater degree, in this then in public Assylums, being well aware that the public have certain prejudices against both public and private hospitals, such as the propriators or keepers of them being barsh, ove bearing, tyrenical, and in some instances, cruel to their patients. In order to do away such feelings, so far as respects himself, he begs leave to their those whom it may concern, to the Rev. Samuel Eastman, No. 229, Bowary; Valentine Mott, M. D. professor of surgery in Rutgers' Medical College, Park Place; B. W. Bonney, on corner of Cedar and Nassau streets, New York; and in Boaton, to the
