THE BEEL. OFFICIAL WHITE AND CITY PAPER. PRINTED BY J. BAYON. NEW ORLEANS: MONDAY MORNING, APRIL 11, 1886.

FOR PRESIDENT. M. VA. BUREAU. FOR VICE PRESIDENT. RICHARD M. JOHNSON.

Market of a letter received in this city, dated 20th of February, 1886. We have just received the annexed circular. There is a good demand for cotton again this morning.

LIVERPOOL, February 19, 1886. On the 17th inst. the market for sugar was very quiet. The price of sugar was 17 1/2 cents per cwt. The price of coffee was 15 cents per cwt.

TEXAS.—The most distressing intelligence was received yesterday from the neighborhood of the mouth of the Brazos river, by the arrival of the General De Kalb from Brazoria, whence she sailed on the 2d inst.

Table with 2 columns: Item, Price. Includes various goods and their market prices.

On the 24th ult. Colonel Fanning had sent out a scouting party of 150 men, with a company of 100 men. They were sent out on a scouting party of 150 men.

As regards the first of these plans, the canal committee, with every respect and deference to the accomplished and scientific character of the project, believe that it would be attended with difficulties.
