

NEW-ORLEANS BEE

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE AND GENERAL GOVERNMENT.
BY BOLLETT MAGNE & CO.
At No. 51 Carondelet street.

PUBLIC PUBLISHERS, NEW ORLEANS, SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 5, 1841.

The Eastern mail arrived yesterday, beyond Columbus, Ga.

The Survivor of the Banks for September will be found in columns. It was handed on Wednesday, but was inadvertently omitted until now.

We had not thought it worth while to contradict so much of the assertion of the Advertiser, as implicates this among other journals, which, pending the recent election, denied that the cause turned upon the question of bank or no bank. But as some of the friends appear destined to credit the observation, we will, for the sake of quieting the unjusted, repeat it.

We have nothing to do with the manner in which the election was conducted in other States, as far as concern Louisiana, a regard to our own election, however, leads us to believe that we ought to declare the last question fully an-dressed by the editor of the Advertiser.

Another proof of the date and inauthenticity of the paper has lately been manifested in the parish of Terrebonne.

Mr. Celestine Bergeron, a respectable inhabitant of Terrebonne, who has been a member of the Legislature for many years, and a man of great influence, has written to the Advertiser, to the effect that "The election of Mr. Clay as President, was the cause of the victory of the Whigs in Louisiana."

With a humanity shuddering at the thought of so many of its friends having suffered such a reverse, he has written to the Advertiser, to point out the error of his judgment, and to assure us that he has been greatly deceived in his estimate of the result.

He has also written to the Advertiser, to assure us that he has been greatly deceived in his estimate of the result.
