New Orleans, November 10, 1845.

NOTICE.—The sale at auction of MATHILDA JANE, a negress, aged 20 years, which was to have taken place on Sunday, from the Ferry landing to the Convent, is postponed to Tuesday next, at the same hour and place, at the request of a portion of the citizens of the city, may profit by a favorable opportunity to purchase said negress. At each sale the property is delivered at the landing of the Convent, and the purchaser has to take it away at his own risk and expense. All those who will find it to their advantage to attend the sale, for the transportation of articles they may purchase, is favorably received by the public, as the ferry is in the vicinity of the landing.

The passage is 50 cents. Children and servants, free.

TO CAPTAINS OF VESSELS.—Masters of vessels will find it much to their advantage to buy their vessels stores in Water street, where they can be supplied with every article in that line, at the lowest cash prices. Those having furniture or other articles to dispose of, will also find it to their advantage to call at the First Municipality Auction Store, No 79 Camp street, corner of Common, where they will find a ready sale for their goods. The charges will be most reasonable.

TO MERCHANTS AND PLANTERS.—For sale at the auction store, No 79 Camp street, corner of Common, a large assortment of groceries, such as sugar kettles, bricks, lumber, &c. Also, a quantity of Coffee, and other articles, the planters and others are invited to have a good bargain. Those having furniture or other articles to dispose of will also find it to their advantage to call at the First Municipality Auction Store, where they will always find a ready sale for their goods. The charges will be most reasonable.

Architecture, Civil Engineering and Surveying.

HENRY HOWARD, late Architect to Banks' Arcade, on Magazine street, in New Orleans, respectfully acquaints the inhabitants of the Southern States, that he continues to offer his professional services in every branch of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Surveying, and that he has entered into partnership with Mr. Thomas Williams, of this city, Architect, for the purpose of more effectually carrying on the business of the profession in all its various branches.

Mr. Howard has also entered into partnership with Mr. Samuel Hamilton, Civil Engineer, and all the various plans of real estate, topographical maps, drawings of machinery, plans, specifications and estimates for buildings, dwelling-houses, warehouses, cottages, etc. will not only be made at short notice, but will also be faithfully superintended the execution of the same, and of bridges and other improvements. The firm of Howard & Hamilton will undertake the construction of works of the greatest magnitude, such as Levees, Fascine works, etc. a very limited number of first rate assistants at my disposal. I am now prepared to undertake any professional services in every branch of Architecture, Civil Engineering and Surveying, and I respectfully solicit the patronage of the public, which I hope to merit by strict attention to business, and moderate charges.

N B—Mr. Howard has also in his office a large collection of plans of buildings, executed in this city, which may be inspected at any time during office hours.
